Long may Your Majeſty Live and Reign over us, as the Nurſing-Mother of our Spotleſs Religion, the Delight and Darling of a happy People, and the Terrour and Scourge of Ambitious Tyrants. May Your Majeſty late, very late, exchange theſe Temporal Crowns for an Immortal one ; and our diſtant Poſterity enjoy the Benefits, and bleſs the Memory of Your Majeſty's Piety and Conduct. Theſe are the ſincere Prayers of, &c. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

AS Your Majeſty's great Zeal for the Protection and Security of the preſent Government, in Church and State, engage our dutiful Acknowledgment ; ſo we beg Leave, in all Humility, to beſeech Almighty God, to inſpire Your Majeſty with a continu'd Courage, to aſſert the Juſt Rights of Monarchy, and the Church of England, with the Succeſſion to the Crown in the Proteſtant Line, as by Law Eſtabliſh'd, againſt all Oppoſers and Innovators whatſoever : In the Defence whereof, our Anceſtors ſo freely ſpent their Blood ; and which we, their loyal Offspring, ſolemnly declare, we will ſupport with our Lives and Fortunes. Cornwal County.

May Your Majeſty's Arms ſtill glorioufly Conquer abroad, and Your Goodneſs Prevail upon Your Enemies at home, till there be no Power able to Reſiſt the one, or Malignant left to Diſturb the other ; and, after a long and peaceable Reign, that Your Majeſty may tranſmit theſe invaluable Bleſſings to late Poſterity, is the Prayer of, *&c. AC 911.1 H0.C64

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord-Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled. Presented to Her Majesty, April 13, 1710; and had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

This Address was agreed to, Nemine Contradicente.

Dread Sovereign!

City of London. THE daring and insolent Attacks that have been publickly made on our most happy Constitution, (of which Your Majesty's Royal Prerogative is so essential a Part) by infusing Republican Notions into the Minds of Your Subjects, by printing and publishing seditious and scandalous Books and Pamphlets, have justly awaken'd us, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, to a serious Consideration of the fatal Consequences of such Doctrines to Your Majesty's most sacred Person, and to the Protestant Succession, as by Law establish'd, being destructive of Monarchy itself.

We therefore most humbly crave Leave, to declare our hearty Detestation of all Antimonarchical Principles; and to assure Your Majesty of our steady and unshaken Loyalty to Your Person and Government, supported by Your Just and Legal Prerogative; of our hearty Zeal for the Preservation of the Church of England, founded on the Doctrines and Practices of the Apostles and Primitive Christians, with a tender Regard to all Persons of Consciences truly Scrupulous; of our firm Resolution of maintaining the Protestant Succession, as by Law Establish'd, in the Illustrious House of Hanover, as the only Means to perpetuate the great Blessings we enjoy under Your most auspicious Reign.

And in Obedience to Your Royal Commands, we will use our utmost Care and Diligence, to prevent and suppress all Riotous and Tumultuous Assemblies; and with undaunted Vigour, (to the last) oppose all Persons, both at home and abroad, who shall attempt to disturb the Peace of Your Glorious Reign, or the Serenity of Your Royal Mind. Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously.

London, April the 5th.

This day was presented to Her Majesty the following Address, by James Lord Viscount Scudamore, and John Prise, Esq; Knights of the Shire; introduced by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort. After which, they had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High-Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, and other Gentlemen of the County of Hereford, assembled at the Assizes held the 25th Day of March, 1710.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Hereford County. WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave, most sincerely and solemnly to assure Your Majesty of our steady and unshaken Loyalty to Your Sacred Person and Government, of our firm Adherence to the Protestant Succession, and our tender Regard for the Preservation of that Holy Apostolical Church, of which Your Majesty is so Great an Ornament, and Glorious Defender.

We cannot but with the greatest Abhorrence and Detestation observe, with what Boldness and Assurance Your Royal Authority has been struck at, and the Doctrines and Ordinances of our most Pure and Holy Reform'd Church decry'd and vilified, by the many Factious, Seditious, Blasphemous, and Schismatical Tenets, openly profess'd, publish'd, and, of late, with great Industry, propagated amongst us.

Therefore, we beg Leave again to assure Your Majesty, that as we shall be ready to sacrifice our Lives, and all that is valuable to us, in Defence of Your sacred Person, Prerogative, and Government, against all open and profess'd Enemies abroad; so we shall be no less Careful and Industrious in our several Stations, to suppress those secret and as dangerous ones at home. And as it has been our great Happiness, so it shall be hereafter our utmost Care, to choose such Representatives in Parliament, as have a true Sense of their Duty to Your Majesty, and a fervent Zeal for our Establish'd Church and Constitution.

May the King of Kings, and only Ruler of Princes, long continue Your Reign over us, and bless Your conquering Arms with a firm and happy Peace: And when many, many Years, shall bereave this Nation of so great a Blessing; may the glorious Example of Your auspicious Reign be a standing Pattern to succeeding Ages.

These are the sincere Prayers of Your most dutiful and most obedient Subjects. Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously.

London,

London, April 17. 1710.

The following Addreſs from the Grand-Jury, and Gentlemen of the County of Devon, was this Day preſented to Her Majeſty, by the Honourable Sir William Courtenay, Bar. one of the Knights of the Shire for the ſaid County, and other Gentlemen; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold, and the Right Honourable Earl Poulet, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County of Devon, being aſſembled at the Aſſizes held for the ſaid County, at the Caſtle of Exon, the 4th of April, 1710, do hereby preſume to Addreſs Your moſt Sacred Majeſty (our Rightful and Undoubted Sovereign) with the ſincere Tenders of Our humble Duty and Service, and with the grateful Sentiments We always have of Your Majeſty's conſtant Care and Concern for Us. Devon County.

We have been always Strangers to Faction, Popiſh and Republican Principles. Our Gracious Queen, and Our moſt Holy Church, have been always next our Hearts. We chearfully Obey the One, and Reverence the Other; and We would not Leſſen the Security of Either, to be Abſolv'd from thoſe Duties.

Be aſſured, therefore, Gracious Sovereign, that We will ever ſtand by Your Majeſty, to the utmoſt Period of our Lives, in the Preſervation and Defence of Your moſt Sacred Perſon, Prerogative, and Government, the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd, with all the Apoſtolical Doctrines thereof, againſt all Your Majeſty's Enemies both at Home and Abroad. And We hope, always, to chooſe ſuch Repreſentatives to ſerve in Parliament, as ſhall moſt religiouſly ſerve thoſe Ends.

May the Bleſſing of Heaven attend Your Majeſty in the whole Courſe of Your Reign, that when Your Majeſty ſhall have accompliſhed the Glorious Work, which, by the Bleſſing of God on Your Majeſty's Arms, You have well-nigh effected, You may, full of Age, and with Immortal Honour, reſign this Your Earthly for a Heavenly Kingdom. So pray, &c.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly, and the Gentlemen had the Honour to kiſs Her Hand.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, and other Gentlemen aſſembled at the Aſſizes held for the County of Northampton, on the 5th Day of April, 1710, preſented to the Queen by Sir Juſtinian Iſham, Bar. and Thomas Cartwright, Eſq; Knights of the Shire; introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Earl of Northampton. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty was pleas'd to receive moſt graciouſly.

Moſt gracious Sovereign!

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, the Sheriff, Grand-Jury, and Gentlemen aſſembled at the Aſſizes held for the ſame County, think it our bounden Duty, when Atheiſm and Prophaneneſs are encourag'd, to the great Diſhonour of Almighty God, and our moſt Holy Religion, notwithſtanding Your Majeſty's Pious and Princely Care to the contrary, to aſſure Your Sacred Majeſty, that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, maintain and defend the Church of England (moſt truly Apoſtolical) in all her Orders, Doctrines, and Diſcipline, Your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, Crown, and Prerogative, the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and the Liberties of our Fellow-Subjects, from all Attempts both at Home and Abroad. Northampton County.

And as often as Your Majeſty, in Your Great Wiſdom, ſhall think fit to call New Parliaments, We will zealouſly Exert ourſelves, to the utmoſt of our Power, to continue electing Repreſentatives, ſuch as ſhall be for the Honour of Almighty God, the Safety and Happineſs of Your Sacred Majeſty, the true Intereſt of their Country, and the Peace and Welfare of Your Kingdoms.

And that the Almighty may conſummate our Bleſſings, in the Enjoyment of ſo Glorious and Unparallel'd a Princeſs, We do moſt heartily and ſincerely offer up our united Prayers, that He would preſerve Your Majeſty's Health, prolong Your Life, and increaſe Your Power. And after a long, happy, and peaceable Reign here on Earth, enjoying the true Religious Obedience of Your Subjects, and they the happy Influence of Your gracious Government, You may joyfully, tho' late, receive an Eternal Crown of Glory in the World to come.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of Your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London: Presented to Her Majesty, April 13. 1710.

May it please Your Majesty,

Lieutenancy of London. WE Your Majesty's most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, the Commissioners of Your Majesty's Lieutenancy for the City of London, being deeply sensible of the unspeakable Blessings we enjoy under Your most Auspicious Reign, and of the Obedience and Submission we owe to Your Administration, beg Leave humbly to assure Your Majesty, that we have the utmost Detestation and Abhorrence of the Rebellious Tumults and Disorders, set on foot against Your Majesty's Person and Government, in Defiance of the late Proceedings of the High Court of Parliament, and to the great Terror and Damage of many of our Fellow-Subjects.

And being fully satisfied, that these Tumults have been rais'd and fomented by none but Papists, Nonjurors, and other such-like disaffected Persons, who aim at the entire Subversion of our present Establishment, we have thought ourselves under the strictest Obligations, to do every thing in our Power to suppress them: And the rather, because Your Majesty was pleas'd to command our Attendance, soon after these Tumultuous Riots began, that we might receive from Your Majesty the Charge of preserving the Peace of this City.

And we take this Opportunity to assure Your Majesty, that we will, upon all Occasions, defend Your Majesty's Person and Government, Your Rightful and Lawful Title to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, with the Hazard of our Lives and Estates, against all that shall go about to prejudice the late happy Revolution, Your Majesty's present most gracious Administration in Church and State, the Succession in the Protestant Line, the Church of England as establish'd by Law, OR the Toleration allow'd to Protestant Dissenters; being fully persuaded, that all such wicked and malicious Attempts, and tumultuous Practices, together with the seditious Pamphlets, which have been of late revived, and industriously dispers'd, can have no other Tendency, than to subvert the Foundations of our present Happiness and Tranquillity.

And we faithfully promise Your Majesty, we will have no Contention with any of our Fellow-Subjects, unless it be, who shall exceed the other, in contributing to advance our present Happiness, and secure the Protestant Succession; That we may not be wanting to do any Thing that in us lies, towards bringing about that happy Union amongst all Your People, that Your Majesty has so graciously and earnestly recommended from the Throne.

May it please Almighty God long to preserve Your Majesty's sacred Person, and to strengthen Your Majesty's Government, in the Hands of Your Wise and Faithful Ministry, for the Happiness of the present and succeeding Generations.

An humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the City of Gloucester, in Common-Council assembled.

May it please Your Majesty,

Gloucester City. THE Blessings we continually receive from Your glorious Administration, come so thick upon us, that, should we endeavour as often to return our Publick Thanks, we should press too much on that Time always employ'd to make us and our Posterity happy; yet Your Majesty's late most gracious Speech from the Throne, hath swell'd our Hearts too full to be silent.

With what Surprize and Indignation have we heard the Church cry'd out to be in Danger, under Your Majesty's Reign, the Glory, Ornament, and Security of both Church and State?

'Tis true, at last, there appear'd Danger; but it was from that Quarter that preach'd up Peril, seconded by Tumults and Rebellion.

We always desire to obey Your Majesty's Commands, and therefore will not once name those unhappy Disputes above our reach; nor have any Contention, but who shall be the best Subjects to the best Queen.

'Tis Thus we will endeavour to consummate the Course of Your Victories, by compleating that blessed Union Your Majesty hath so much at Heart.

We humbly hope, from the Interposition of Your Royal Wisdom and Power, we may every where hear the Sound of the Gospel, unmix'd with the Noise of Politicks.

Were those, who are disturb'd at our present Happiness, confin'd to their own Business, and what they understand, how very little should we hear from them?

Your Majesty's Affection to the Church never suffers You to forget the Protestant Succession; a Blessing, how dear soever to us, we pray, may be preserv'd to our Posterity, yet unborn.

Note, This Paper is design'd to be continu'd, and sold by John Morphew near Stationers Hall; Price 2 d. To whom Gentlemen are desir'd to send Exact Transcripts of such Addresses as shall come to their Hands, and they shall be carefully inserted.

A Collection of Addreſſes. N° 2.

London, April 23, 1710.

The following Addreſs, from the Grand-Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, the Clergy, and other Gentlemen of the County of Wilts, aſſembled at the Aſſizes held at Sarum the 25th paſt, was, this Day, preſented to Her Majeſty, by the Honourable Sir Richard How, Bar. one of the Knights of the Shire for the ſaid County, and other Gentlemen; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold, and the Right Honourable the Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE the Grand-Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, the Clergy, and other Gentlemen of the County of Wilts, aſſembled together at the Aſſizes held for the ſaid County, the 15th Day of April, 1710, cannot but think it our Duty, humbly to offer to your Majeſty, the ſincere Aſſurances of our unalterable Affections, and moſt profound Reſpect for your ſacred Perſon, and our moſt ſubmiſſive and untainted Loyalty and Zeal for the Government by Law eſtabliſh'd under you, both in Church and State; at this Time, moſt eſpecially, when Schiſm, Faction, and Licentiouſneſs, ſeem ſo avowedly and inſolently to defy and threaten Both. Wilts

We do with the greater Confidence approach your Royal Throne, for that our Profeſſions can never be liable to the Reproach of being Intereſſed, or Occaſional; being known to be founded in Religion and Truth, and the conſtant Doctrine of that holy Church, of which your Majeſty is the glorious Ornament and Defender, in which we have been ſtrictly brought up, and for which we are ready, by God's Grace, to undergo any Difficulties whatſoever. And, as it is a moſt undoubted Truth, That the Safety and Proſperity of your Majeſty and this Church are inſeparable, we moſt earneſtly pray to God ſo to bleſs and protect both, as that neither the Rage and Violence of open Enemies, nor the more fatal Hypocriſy and Subtilty of pretended Friends, may prevail againſt Either.

From theſe Principles, notwithſtanding the bold Attempts of wicked and unreaſonable Men, to root them out of the Hearts of your faithful Subjects, we cannot be deterr'd; And do ſolemnly declare, that we do deteſt and abhor the Thoughts of Reſiſting your Majeſty upon any Pretence, or in favour of any Pretender, whatſoever.

And, in order to preſerve your Majeſty's Prerogative, and the juſt Privileges of your People inviolable; we preſume to promiſe, that whenever it ſhall pleaſe your Majeſty to Diſſolve this preſent Parliament, we will endeavour to continue our Choice of Perſons fit to Repreſent the moſt Loyal of Subjects, and Adviſe the moſt Gracious of QUEENS.

May all the juſt Rights and Franchiſes of your People, both Eccleſiaſtical and Civil, be, by your Care, Wiſdom, and Steddineſs, eſtabliſh'd upon a ſure and laſting Foundation: On your Head may the Crown long flouriſh; and thence deſcending on Proteſtant Succeſſors, may our diſtant Poſterity, ſenſible of the Benefits of your Reign, bleſs your Memory through all Generations.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly; And the Gentlemen had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

London, April 22.

This Day was presented to Her Majesty the following Address, from the County of Warwick, by Sir John Mordaunt Bar. one of the Knights of that Shire, accompany'd by several Lords and Gentlemen of the same, who were introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord-Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Houshold.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High-Sheriff, Noblemen, Deputy-Lieutenants, Grand-Jury, Justices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County of Warwick, at the Assizes.

Warwick County.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High-Sheriff, Noblemen, Grand-Jury, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County of Warwick, assembled at the Assizes held for the said County, on the 8th day of April, 1710, do take this Opportunity to return your Majesty our most sincere and hearty Thanks for the great Zeal your Majesty hath always shewn, even in the most difficult Times, for the establish'd Church, and the Welfare of your People; and humbly to assure Your Majesty, that we shall be ready, on all Occasions, to hazard all that is near and dear to us, in Defence of your sacred Person, the just Rights and Prerogatives of the Crown, the Protestant Succession, and the Church of England as by Law establish'd, with its Apostolical Doctrines, Discipline, and Worship, against all Opposers, both at Home and Abroad; And that we will use our utmost Endeavours, in our several Stations, to suppress all Antimonarchical and Factious, Popish and Schismatical, Blasphemous and Atheistical Tenets, and whatsoever else may tend to disturb the Peace and Quiet of your Majesty's Kingdoms, and continue to choose, as we have hitherto done, such Representatives in Parliament, as are true Sons of the Church, of approved Loyalty to your Majesty, and have a just Value for the Rights and Liberties of their Fellow-Subjects.

May God Almighty accumulate on your Majesty's Head all the Blessings of this Life; and after a long and prosperous Reign over us, reward your Exemplary Piety and Goodness with an immortal Crown of Glory. These are the hearty and earnest Prayers of your Majesty's most dutiful and obedient Subjects.

April 22.

The following Address from the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Warwick, was presented to Her Majesty by the Honourable Francis Greville, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, and the Right Honourable the Lord Brooke, their Recorder.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Warwick.

MADAM,

Warwick Town.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Warwick, humbly beg Leave to represent to your Majesty, our most hearty Abhorrence and Detestation of those abominable Principles, which, in the most publick manner have, of late, so warmly been advanc'd and maintain'd against your Majesty's Prerogative, your Imperial Crown and Dignity.

Tho' we cannot, without Horror, reflect upon those execrable Blasphemies, which are daily publish'd amongst us, together with the Doctrines of Rebellion; yet we think it a manifest Proof of the Excellence of our truly Apostolical Church of England, that when Men have deserted its good old Principles of Subjection to Governours, they naturally sink into Atheism and Infidelity. For our own Parts, we assure your Majesty, in the most solemn manner, that we do, with Hearts full of Zeal and Affection, most earnestly pray for the long Continuance of your Majesty's Life, and happy Reign over us; that we will, at the Expence of all that is dear to us, stand by, and defend your most sacred Person and Government, the Protestant Succession, and the Church of England as by Law establish'd, against all Opposers whatsoever, open or conceal'd, whether at Home or Abroad; and whenever it shall please your Majesty to call a new Parliament, we will continue to choose such Representatives, as shall have the profoundest Veneration for your Majesty, shall assert and maintain your Hereditary Title, industriously discountenance all Factious, Seditious, Antimonarchical Principles, and religiously observe the known Laws of the Land, especially where the Lives, Liberties, or Fortunes of their Fellow-Subjects are concern'd.

Given under our Common-Seal, the Third Day of April, in the Ninth Year of your Majesty's Reign, Annoq; Domini, 1710.

Both which Addresses Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously; and the Gentlemen had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

To

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, High-Sheriff, and Common-Council of the City of Exon, and of the Gentlemen Return'd to ſerve as a Grand-Jury for the ſaid City and County of the ſaid City of Exon, at the Aſſizes held at the Guild-Hall of the ſaid City, on the Third Day of April, 1710. Preſented to Her Majeſty on Saturday the 22*d, by the Right Honourable the Earl* Poulet, Lord-Lieutenant of Devonſhire.

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, being truly ſenſible of our great Happineſs, in that we are Members of the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd, ſhall always concur with Your Majeſty in a tender Regard for its Proſperity, and, by divine Aſſiſtance, conſcientiouſly practiſe its moſt pure and holy Doctrines. And we humbly beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, our Rightful and Lawful Queen and Governour, that we will inviolably pay Your Majeſty that Duty and Obedience, which our Oaths oblige us to, and our Church hath taught us to be Your Due. Exon City.

And we do heartily deteſt and abhor, and in our ſeveral Stations ſhall zealouſly diſcountenance all thoſe Blaſphemous, Heretical, Schiſmatical, Latitudinarian, and Republican Principles and Poſitions, with which ſome evil-diſpoſed Perſons have, of late, endeavour'd to deprave the Chriſtian Faith, to corrupt the Minds of Your Majeſty's Subjects, and to undermine our Excellent Conſtitution, both in Church and State.

And as often as Your Majeſty ſhall be pleaſed to Call us, by our Repreſentatives, to Parliament, we ſhall endeavour to be ſo repreſented, that, as far as in us lies, Your Majeſty, and the publick Occaſions, may be vigorouſly ſupplied, Your Royal Dignity and Prerogative, the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and every other Part of the Conſtitution, faithfully maintained, and the Doctrines and Principles of the Church of England deliver'd unblemiſh'd to Poſterity.

We beſeech Almighty God to multiply his Bleſſings on Your Majeſty, and through Your Majeſty's Adminiſtration, on Your People.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

London, April 24.

This Day was preſented to Her Majeſty the following Addreſs, by William Blaithwait and Samuel Trotman, Eſqs; the Repreſentatives of the City of Bath; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort.

Her Majeſty receiv'd it very graciouſly; and the Gentlemen that attended it, had the Honour of kiſſing Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Bath, in the County of Somerſet, aſſembled.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

OUR unfeigned Zeal and Affection for your Majeſty's moſt Sacred Perſon, the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd, obliges us, at this Time, to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are ready to ſacrifice all that is dear to us in their Defence, in Oppoſition as well to thoſe pernicious Principles of Faction and Sedition, as to all irreligious, hypocritical, and traiterous Practices, the natural and certain Conſequences thereof. Bath City.

We are, Madam, ſurpriz'd, that any of your Majeſty's Subjects (if they may be ſo nam'd) ſhould be ſuch Enemies to your Majeſty, your Crown, and Prerogative, as to dare to deny your Hereditary Right to the Throne of your Anceſtors; any ſo Wicked, as to juſtify the horrid Murder of that Bleſſed Martyr, your Royal Grandfather, and vilify thoſe Doctrines of our Church and Holy Religion, which are our only Security againſt the like deteſtable Attempts for the future.

May the Almighty Power, by whom Kings and Princes Reign, always protect and defend your Majeſty; and direct thoſe that are in Authority under you, aſſiduouſly to Diſcourage, and effectually to Suppreſs, all ſuch damnable Doctrines, and Poſitions, and to bring to condign Punſhment their Authors and Abettors, who thereby manifeſtly endanger the Peace and Safety of our happy Conſtitution, both in Church and State. In Teſtimony whereof, we have cauſed our Common Seal to be hereunto affix'd, this 22*d Day of* April, in the Ninth Year of your Majeſty's moſt glorious and happy Reign.

London,

London, April 19.

The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by Tho. Gery, Eſq; introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Earl of Northampton: Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Gentlemen, Clergy, and principal Inhabitants of the City and County of Coventry.

Coventry City.

IN a juſt and dutiful Senſe of Your Majeſty's undoubted Hereditary Title to the Throne, and of that Duty, which, by the Principles of the Chriſtian Religion, and of the Engliſh Conſtitution, we owe Your Sacred Majeſty, we beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty of our inviolable Fidelity to Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and of our Abhorrence of all ſuch Principles and Practices as may render either inſecure.

Your Majeſty is equally the Ornament and Support of our Holy Religion. May all its Friends be inſpir'd with due Proportion of Your Majeſty's Pious Zeal for it; And may Divine Providence concur with Your Majeſty's Endeavours to guard its Doctrine, to preſerve its Diſcipline, and maintain its Worſhip; and tranſmit them ſafe to late Poſterity.

When Your Majeſty, in Your Great Wiſdom, ſhall be pleas'd to call a New Parliament, we beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, We will uſe our reſpective Endeavours to chooſe ſuch Repreſentatives, as will dutifully comply with Your Majeſty, to ſecure our moſt Holy Faith againſt the Deſigns of Atheiſts and Hereticks; our Excellent Church againſt Superſtition and Schiſm; the Proteſtant Succeſſion againſt all Pretenſions; And the beſt Conſtitution in the World, againſt the dangerous Schemes of reſtleſs Innovators and levelling Republicans.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The Humble and Unanimous Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace and Grand-Jury, Aſſembled at the General Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace, holden for the County of Worceſter, at the Guildhall of the City of Worceſter, upon Tueſday the 18*th* Day of April, in the Ninth Year of Her Majeſty's Reign.

Worceſter County.

PErmit Us, moſt gracious Sovereign, to congratulate Your Majeſty and Your Kingdoms, upon the Happy Suppreſſion of the Rebellious Tumults lately rais'd and encouraged in Your Metropolis, by Papiſts, Non-Jurors, and other Enemies to Your Majeſty's Title and Government.

The Boldneſs of the Attempt, in Defiance of the Juſtice of the Nation, when the Repreſentative Body of the Commons of Great Britain had charg'd an Offender with High Crimes and Miſdemeanours, before Your Majeſty, in Your Higheſt Court of Judicature; as well as the timing of it, when the Great Diſturber of Europe was treating for Peace, having been humbled by the Arms of Your Majeſty, and the Allies Abroad, ſhew'd to have been the laſt Efforts of his Friends here.

We humbly beg leave, to declare our utter Deteſtation of all ſuch Traiterous Practices, and our firm Reſolution to ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of Your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, Juſt Title, and Gracious Adminiſtration of the Church of England, and of the Proteſtant Succeſſion, as they are by Law Eſtabliſhed.

Long may Your Majeſty Live, the Defender and Ornament of our Church; may the reſt of Your Happy Reign be crown'd, if poſſible, with greater Bleſſings and Honours, than thoſe which have hitherto attended it, which, we truſt, we may reaſonably hope for, from that Earneſt of God's farther Protection and Favour, which he has been pleaſed to give ſo early, this Spring, to Your Majeſty's Army, and thoſe of Your Allies, in their glorious and ſucceſsful Attempts upon the Enemy's Lines. May Your Majeſty be always ſerv'd by ſuch a wiſe and juſt Miniſtry, ſuch a faithful and courageous General, ſuch a dutiful and affectionate Parliament, as now make Your Majeſty's Reign the Glory of the Britiſh Monarchy, the Envy of Your Neighbours, and the Terror of Your Enemies.

Theſe are the fervent Prayers; and, in any Inſtances wherein we contribute to theſe great Ends, Your Majeſty may be aſſured of the moſt zealous Endeavours of Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects and Servants.

Agreed Nemine Contratradicente, and ſign'd by the High-Sheriff, 17 Deputy-Lieutenants and Juſtices of the Peace, and 19 Gentlemen of the Grand-Jury.

Note, This Paper is deſign'd to be continu'd, and ſold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 d. To whom Gentlemen are deſir'd to ſend Exact Tranſcripts of ſuch Addreſſes as ſhall come to their Hands, and they ſhall be carefully inſerted.

A Collection of Addreſſes. N° 3.

April 27, 1710.

The following Addreſs was this Day preſented to Her Majeſty, by Robert Harley and Thomas Harley Eſqs; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery, Lord-Lieutenant of South-Wales.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly, and admitted them to the Honour of kiſſing Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, the Grand-Jury, and other Gentlemen, aſſembled at the Great Seſſions held at Preſteigne, for the County of Radnor, the Third Day of April, in the Ninth Year of Her Majeſty's Reign, Anno Domini 1710.

WE Your Majeſty's Dutiful, Loyal, and Liege Subjects, conſidering the Tender Regard of Your Majeſty for all under Your Royal Protection, cannot, without a manifeſt Breach and Violation of our Duty to Your Perſon, Crown, and Dignity, omit to repreſent, and with all ſorrowful Submiſſion, to lay before Your Majeſty, the great Miſchiefs, and manifold Inconveniences, that have, for ſome Years laſt paſt, aroſe to Your Faithful Subjects, and the moſt pure Chriſtian Religion, happily eſtabliſh'd among us, from the many Blaſphemous, Heretical, Jeſuitical, Atheiſtical, Schiſmatical, and Republican Books and Pamphlets, that have been induſtriouſly diſperſed and encouraged, (even in theſe remote Parts of Your Majeſty's Dominions) in order to foment Diviſions among Your Majeſty's Dutiful Subjects, diſturb their Peace, and alter, if not ſubvert, the Eſtabliſhment both in Church and State; And ſhould we not declare our juſt Abhorrence, as well againſt the Authors, as the Books and Principles therein contained, we could not be innocent from being Partakers in their Guilt. Radnor County.

We beg Leave likewiſe, Dread Sovereign, to take this Opportunity to Recognize and Acknowledge Your Majeſty's Power and Authority over us, as expreſſed and declared in a Statute made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of Your Royal Uncle King Charles II. of ever-bleſſed Memory, and to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we ſhall always be ready, to the utmoſt of our Power and Eſtates, to maintain and defend Your Perſon in all Your Legal Prerogatives, the moſt holy Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd among us, in all its Rights, and the Eſtabliſh'd Conſtitution of the Three Eſtates, againſt all, as well Your as their Enemies, whether Papiſts, Republicans, or others, either at Home or Abroad. And that it ſhall be our conſtant Endeavour, always to chooſe ſuch Repreſentatives in Parliament, as ſhall be affectionately Loyal to Your Majeſty, conſtant Communicants of our holy Mother the Orthodox and Apoſtolical Church of England, and ſteady Aſſertors of the Succeſſion eſtabliſh'd in the Illuſtrious Line of Hanover.

May Your Majeſty long continue to ſit on the Throne of Your Anceſtors, and Reign over us; and may it be the earneſt Endeavour of all Your Subjects to merit ſuch benign Protection, that all Schiſms, Diviſions, and Factions, being laid aſide, we may have no Contention among us, but who ſhall be the moſt conformable to the preſent Eſtabliſhment; the moſt Dutiful and Obedient Subjects to the moſt Pious and Beſt of Princes; which are the ſincere Prayers of, &c.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High-Steward, Deputy-Steward, High-Bailiff, Burgesses, and Assistants, and other Inhabitants of the City and Liberty of Westminster. Presented by Tho. Medlicote, Esq; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, High-Steward.

May it please Your Majesty,

Westminster City. WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, (Inhabitants of Your City of Westminster) having the Honour to be nearest Your Person, are most sensible of the daily Blessings of Your Reign.

And, therefore, think it our Duty, more particularly, to express our Abhorrence of every Republican Principle, and Factious and Blasphemous Tenet, which tend to endanger that Government, under which we live so happily.

And as we detest, with Indignation, those newly receiv'd Doctrines in favour of Resistance, which may make such ill Impressions in the Minds of the People, as will endanger the Safety of our happy Constitution; so we take this Occasion to assure Your Majesty, we will (with the Hazard of every thing that is dear to us) Defend Your Sacred Person, and Hereditary Title to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors; and also, the Protestant Succession, and Church of England, as Established by Law; with due Regard to that Legal Indulgence granted to Consciences truly Scrupulous.

In order to these great and good Ends, we will choose such Representatives for the next Parliament, (when your Majesty shall be pleas'd to determine this) as being most affectionately Loyal to Your Majesty, and Zealous for our Church, shall concur with Your Majesty in such Measures, as may disappoint the Attempts of the Pretender from Abroad, and Your secret Enemies at home, and may be most effectual for procuring a speedy, honourable, and lasting Peace.

Which Address, sign'd by several Thousand Persons, Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously, and admitted many of the Gentlemen who were present, to the Honour of kissing Her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The Address of the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Justices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County-Palatine of Lancaster, assembled at the Assizes holden for the said County, the Sixth day of April, 1710. Presented by Richard Shuttleworth, Esq; one of the Representatives of the said County; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord-Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household; and the Right Honourable the Earl of Anglesea.

Lancaster County-Palatine. WE do most humbly beg Leave to assure Your Majesty, that our hearty and sincere Affections to Your Royal Person, our Zeal for the Church establish'd in England, and our firm Resolution to defend Both with our Lives and Fortunes, against all Enemies, foreign and domestick, make us presume to address Your Majesty, in hopes of your gracious Protection and Encouragement to us to persevere in our true Zeal and hearty Wishes, that the Enemies to both our Church and State may be discover'd, and discourag'd from any wicked Practices and Attempts whatsoever. And we pray God to grant Your Majesty a long and prosperous Reign over us, and to defend You from any evil Accidents, Plots, and Contrivances, that may be form'd against your Sacred Person, by dangerous Papists, or treacherous Schismaticks of this Realm; and that the Establish'd Church in this Kingdom may flourish, and the Protestant Succession be preserv'd to future Ages: In order to which, we will use our utmost Endeavours to send such Representatives to the ensuing Parliament, as will amply testify the Duty of us Your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, and Sons of that Apostolical Church.

Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously, and Richard Shuttleworth Esq; with the Gentlemen accompanying him, had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

April 26. 1710.

The following Addreſſes were preſented by the High-Sheriff, and other Gentlemen of the County of Durham, who were graciouſly received by the Queen, and had the Honour of kiſſing Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen, aſſembled at the Quarter-Seſſions held at Durham, April 20. 1710.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

THE early Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Arms at the Opening of this Campagne, by Entring the Lines of the Enemy without Oppoſition, obliges us, Your Loyal and Dutiful Subjects in Your County of Durham, to Preſent this our moſt humble and hearty Congratulation to Your Majeſty. Durham County.

And likewiſe, being truly ſenſible of Your Majeſty's great Goodneſs and Piety, by Your ſo late, as well as former Aſſurances from the Throne, that no Prince that ever ſate thereon had a more true and tender Concern for the Welfare and Proſperity of the Church than Your Majeſty hath, and always will continue to have, We ſhould think ourſelves much wanting in Duty and Gratitude to Your Majeſty, if We did not, in a moſt Publick Manner, acknowledge Your Majeſty's unparallel'd Goodneſs with the utmoſt Gratitude and ſincereſt Thanks, which hereby We gladly and moſt chearfully do; And, with all Humility, beg Leave to declare our Opinion to be, that the Church of England, as by Law eſtabliſh'd, can be in no danger where Your Majeſty is Safe; not even from its greateſt Enemies, Men of Antimonarchical Principles, Republicans, and the late Advancers of the Pernicious Doctrine and Duty of Reſiſtance to Princes; ſo deſtructive to the very Eſſence and Being of Church and Government.

And We Firmly and moſt Religiouſly aſſure Your Majeſty, We will ever, with all that is dear to Us, defend Your Majeſty's moſt Sacred Perſon, the Proteſtant Succeſſion; and That Church, the Faith of which, Your Majeſty is ſo True, ſo Pious, and ſo Glorious a Defender; againſt the Pretender, and all other Your Majeſty's Enemies, whether in Church or State.

May Your Majeſty's Reign be Long, Undiſturb'd, and Glorious; and may Your Majeſty Reign not only over the Perſons, but univerſally in the Hearts of Your People.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Commonalty, and Freemen of Your Ancient City of Durham.

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, do think ourſelves, at this time, under an indiſpenſable Duty, moſt humbly to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we ſhall be always ready to venture whatever is dear to us, for the Support and Preſervation of Your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, Prerogative, and Government, Your Hereditary Right to the Crown of theſe Kingdoms, the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd, with all its Primitive Doctrines, againſt Republican, Rebellious, and all other dangerous Principles whatſoever; and that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, diſappoint the wicked Deſigns of all Your Enemies, whether at Home or Abroad; And when there ſhall be Occaſion, will chooſe ſuch Repreſentatives, as will heartily maintain theſe our Reſolutions, and the Toleration allowed to Conſciences truly Scrupulous. Durham City.

May God Almighty bleſs and preſerve Your Majeſty: May Your Reign be long and proſperous, for the Encouragement of Good Men, and Puniſhment of all Evil-Doers, and their Abettors: And may no Sedition diſturb this State, nor Schiſm divide this Church. And that we may (in due time) enjoy the Bleſſings of an honourable Peace, are the hearty Prayers of, Madam, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful, and conſtantly Loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs, from the County of Suffolk, was preſented to Her Majeſty, May 1, 1710, by Sir Thomas Hanmer, Bar. one of the Repreſentatives for the ſaid County; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord-Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold. Which Addreſs was very graciouſly receiv'd, and Sir Thomas Hanmer, with other Gentlemen of the ſaid County, had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of Peace, Gentlemen, and others, Freeholders of the County of Suffolk, at the General Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace, begun and holden at Beccles, in and for the ſame County, the 17*th Day of* April, in the Ninth Year of Her Majeſty's Reign, and by ſeveral Adjournments, continu'd and held at Woodbridge, Ipſwich, and Bury St. Edmunds.

May it pleaſe Your moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Suffolk County. THE Succeſſes of Your Arms, and the ſignal Victories which have attended Your Reign, have often brought us with Congratulations to Your Majeſty, and Expreſſions of our Zeal for the Common Cauſe of Liberty, which You have ſo glorioufly maintain'd.

At this time, a particular Senſe of Loyalty and Duty moves us, among others of our Fellow-Subjects, to offer our moſt unfeign'd Aſſurances to Your Majeſty, that we will always defend Your Royal Perſon and Government, and ſteadily adhere to the juſt Rights and Prerogatives of the Crown.

It is with unſpeakable Joy, that we hear Your Majeſty expreſſing from the Throne, the trueſt and moſt tender Concern for the Welfare and Proſperity of the Church of England, as by Law eſtabliſh'd; which, as it retains the greateſt Purity in its Worſhip, ſo it teaches ſuch Doctrines, and profeſſes ſuch Principles, as we are perſuaded are moſt Conſiſtent with Your Majeſty's Safety, the Peace of all Government, and the Preſervation of our own happy Conſtitution. We therefore think ourſelves bound, by all the Ties and Obligations that Men can lie under, to concur with Your Majeſty, upon all Occaſions, in Defence of ſo Excellent a Church; Nor ſhall our Endeavours be ever wanting to prevent, as far as in us lies, any Dangers that may ariſe to it, whether from the Attempts of Popery, the Inſults of Faction, or the Scandal of Prophaneneſs.

Your Majeſty's long Life is the greateſt Bleſſing it can enjoy, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion the chief Security it has to depend upon hereafter; both are the Subject of our daily Prayers; And we humbly hope, that as we can never fail in any Part of Duty to Your Majeſty, ſo a conſtant and faithful Diſcharge of it will always entitle us to Your moſt gracious Protection, and make us be thought worthy the Favour of the beſt of Queens.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Grand-Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County of Southampton, at the Aſſizes holden for the ſaid County, at the Caſtle of Wincheſter, on Thurſday the 20th day of April.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Hants County. 'TIS with the greateſt Surprize, that we have lately ſeen the Jeſuitical Arts, and Malicious Inſinuations, of Papiſts, Jacobites, and Non-Jurors, ſo far prevail upon ſome of the Weakeſt, and moſt Ignorant of Your Majeſty's Subjects, as to perſuade them, that the Church of England could be in Danger under Your Majeſty's Adminiſtration, or the Conſtitution from the Proceedings of this very Parliament, which has ſhew'd ſuch a Zeal for Both, as can never be queſtion'd, but by thoſe Perſons who are unthankful for thoſe gracious Expreſſions which You ſo lately deliver'd from the Throne.

The Safe and Flouriſhing Condition of the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd, the Securing the Proteſtant Succeſſion, the Union of Your Majeſty's Kingdoms, the Wiſdom and Mildneſs of Your Government, and all the other Bleſſings of Your Majeſty's unparallel'd Reign, are ſo dear to Us, that we cannot but have the greateſt Deteſtation of ſuch Perſons and Principles as ſtrike at the very Foundation of 'em all, the late Happy Revolution, in which Your Majeſty bore ſo glorious a Part.

We beg Your Majeſty to believe, that We have a moſt hearty Zeal for Your Perſon and Government, which We ſhall always endeavour to demonſtrate, by promoting Peace, and mutual Good-Will betwixt all Your Majeſty's Subjects, and by deteſting, diſappointing, and puniſhing all Diſturbers of the Publick Peace, or Fomenters of Diviſions amongſt Your People; which can have no other Effect, but to advance the Cauſe of the Common Enemy, and to defeat the Glorious Deſigns of the Beſt of Queens.

Note, This Paper is deſign'd to be continu'd, and ſold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 d. To whom Gentlemen are deſir'd to ſend Exact Tranſcripts of ſuch Addreſſes as ſhall come to their Hands, and they ſhall be carefully inſerted.

A Collection of Addreſſes. N° 4.

The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty, from the County of Monmouth, by the Earl of Pembroke, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

TO THE QUEEN.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High-Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, and Grand-Jury of this County of Monmouth, aſſembled at the Aſſizes held for the ſaid County, the 23d Day of March, 1709, Having obſerv'd, with Pleaſure, the ſeaſonable Zeal of our Neighbouring County of Glouceſter, do moſt humbly deſire Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that (tho' they have the Start of us in Time, yet) we come behind none of Your Subjects in the Meaſure of our Regard for the inſeparable Rights of Your Sacred Perſon, of our Church and Government, the Support of theſe, and their Security in the Proteſtant Line. Which we ſhall, by the Aſſiſtance of that GOD, (from whoſe unalterable Laws we beſt learn our Duty) at all times, earneſtly contend for, not thinking what, next to them, is neareſt to us, ill ſpent in their Defence. Monmouth County.

We will not fail to give Prophaneneſs and Immorality, and eſpecially thoſe worſt of Immoralities, Faction, and Hypocriſy, and Rebellion, the utmoſt Diſcouragement, nor ceaſe to Reſiſt thoſe bad People, whether at Home or Abroad, to the laſt Extremity of our Power, who would diſturb our Happineſs, under the very beſt of Churches, Queens, and Governments.

We beſeech Your Majeſty to believe, that we ſpeak this from the ſincere Abundance of our Hearts, and will give it a farther Teſtimony, by always making choice (as we have hitherto done) of ſuch Perſons only to Repreſent us in Your great Council, as we know to agree with us in theſe good Sentiments; who ſhall never make the Defence of their Privileges, a Pretence of invading Your Majeſty's.

May the God, by whom Kings and Queens Reign, be ever watchful of Your Sacred Perſon, and give his Angels Charge over You, his Angels will rejoice at his Charge: May Your Reign over us be long, as it is juſt and glorious; and then we know, that late, very late Poſterity, ſhall behold Your Triumphant Removal to the Scene of endleſs Happineſs, where Your Majeſty's Royal Grandfather, and other juſt Men made Perfect, ſit enthron'd.

This (Madam) is the never-ending Prayers of,

Your very faithful Subjects.

May the 2d, 1710.

The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Cotes, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, (introduced by the Duke of Leeds their Recorder) and was graciouſly receiv'd by Her Majeſty; and had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The Humble Addreſs of Your Majeſty's ancient and loyal City of Litchfield, together with the Bailiffs, Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, and Grand-Jury, at the General Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace, held at and for the ſaid City, the 20th of April 1710, as alſo of other Inhabitants of the ſaid City.

Litchfield City.

IT is not only matter of Concern, but Surprize to us, (and ſo we find it to be to very many of your loyal Subjects) that in ſo happy a Reign, and under ſo wiſe and gentle an Adminiſtration, as is that of Your Majeſty, the ſame pernicious Republican Principles ſhould be reviv'd, which even within Memory brought on a moſt unnatural Rebellion, ſubverted the Monarchy, which is the beſt of Governments, ruined the beſt and pureſt part of the Church Catholick, that of the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd, and deſtroy'd the beſt of Princes, Your Royal Grandfather, that glorious Martyr of bleſſed Memory; a Loſs ſo great to this Nation, as could never have been ſo effectually made up to us, as by Your Majeſty's moſt happy Acceſſion to the Throne, not by a Precarious Title of Election or Force, but ſuch as was Legal, Peaceful, and Hereditary.

And leſt the Seeds of Anarchy and Confuſion ſhould again take Root, we beg Leave to join with the many Loyal Counties and Corporations, who upon this Occaſion throw themſelves at Your Majeſty's Feet, and with them to give Your Majeſty all poſſible Aſſurances of our unfeign'd Loyalty and ſteady Adherence to the Crown, in the Defence of all its juſt Claims and Prerogatives, and the Maintenance of the Eſtabliſh'd Church, whereof Your Majeſty is ſo great an Ornament, as well as Defender and Head. And we ſhall uſe our utmoſt Endeavours, from time to time, to ſend ſuch Perſons only to repreſent us in Parliament, as we may promiſe to our ſelves will diligently attend, and ſtrenuouſly oppoſe all Blaſphemous, Heretical, Schiſmatical, and Antimonarchical Tenets and Practices; and particularly, that Traiterous, Damnable, and Popiſh Doctrine and Poſition, that Princes, in ſome Caſes, may be Depos'd or Murder'd by their Subjects.

May Your Majeſty continue to reign in the Hearts of Your Subjects, and may You be as Proſperous at Home in Peace, as You have been Victorious Abroad; And when that Day comes, which we pray may be late, very late, that we muſt be depriv'd of the Happineſs we enjoy; may You be ſucceeded as the Law has wiſely provided for the Good of Poſterity, and Yourſelf be crown'd with far greater Glory in Heaven.

Dated under our Common Seal, and the Hands of the Grand-Jurors, and Principal Inhabitants of the ſaid City.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Ancient Borough and Corporation of Taunton, in the County of Somerſet. Humbly preſented to Her Majeſty by Henry Portman, Eſq; Knight of the Shire for the County of Somerſet, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County, and his Grace the Duke of Shrewſbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold, &c.

Moſt Dread Sovereign,

Taunton Borough.

THE inſolent Attempts that have been made on our moſt glorious and happy Conſtitution, by publiſhing ſo many Atheiſtical, Seditious, and Scandalous Libels, tending to the Diſhonour of Almighty God, the Deſtruction of our Religion, the Extirpation of Monarchy, and the Subverſion of our truly Apoſtolical Church, have engaged us to aſſure Your Royal Majeſty of our inviolable Fidelity to Your Sacred Perſon, Title and Government, of our Reſolution to maintain the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion againſt all Pretenders whatſoever, and of our Abhorrence of all ſuch Traiterous, Schiſmatical, and Republican Principles and Practices, as tend to the Prejudice either of Church or State.

May Divine Providence aſſiſt Your Majeſty (who is the Ornament and Support of our Holy Religion) in all Your Endeavours, to preſerve the Diſcipline and Doctrine of our unblemiſh'd Church; and may all Your Subjects be inſpired with an equal Zeal for the Welfare thereof.

To which end, We will endeavour to return ſuch Repreſentatives in Parliament, as will comply with Your Majeſty in ſecuring our Sacred Religion againſt all the Deſigns of its Atheiſtical Enemies, and defending the Church againſt all Schiſmatical Opponents, the Proteſtant Succeſſion againſt all Pretenſions, and our Noble Conſtitution againſt all the Artifices of Reſtleſs and Republican Perſons.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly, and Mr. Portman had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

London,

London, April 29.

This Day was presented to Her Majesty the following Address, by Sir George Beaumont, Bar. attended by the High-Sheriff, and other Gentlemen; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Denbigh. Her Majesty receiv'd it very graciously, and the Gentlemen that attended it had the Honour of kissing her Hand.

The humble Address of the Sheriff, Gentlemen, and Justices of the Peace of Leicestershire.

Leicester County.

AT a time when the Nation seems so universally dispos'd humbly to offer their Duty and Allegiance to Your Majesty: We whose known Loyalty to the Crown, and sincere Affection to Your Royal Person, has hitherto eminently distinguish'd us, should think our selves unworthy that Character, if we should be wanting now to express a Zeal and Fervency for Your Service, equal to the best of our Fellow-Subjects.

As we cannot, without the greatest Resentment and Concern, hear Your Majesty's Hereditary Right and Title to the Throne of Your Ancestors, made the Subject of publick Debate, and the establish'd Doctrines of our Church, call'd in Question and exploded; so we assure Your Majesty, it shall make no other Impression on our Hearts, than to adhere more firmly, if possible, to a Queen, whose undoubted Title is deriv'd from a long and glorious Descent of Royal Progenitors; and more ardently to embrace those Truths that are founded on Scripture, and deliver'd down by Christ and his Apostles.

And since the Principles of our establish'd Religion, and our innate Affection to Monarchy, gives us a just Value and Esteem for our present Constitution, both in Church and State, under Your Majesty's most glorious and happy Administration; so we will endeavour, to the utmost of our Power, to suppress the Enemies to both, by publickly discountenancing Faction and Schism, and putting a timely Stop to the impetuous Advances of Antimonarchical and Republican Foes, that would subvert our ancient Establishment.

We pray God Almighty, that Your Majesty may always triumph over Your Enemies both at Home and Abroad, and have a long and prosperous Reign over us; and to contribute our Parts, we will endeavour to send such Representatives to the next ensuing Parliament, as shall be eminent for Loyalty to their Prince, firm to the Protestant Succession, zealous for their Establish'd Church, and tender of the Liberty and Fortunes of their Fellow-Subjects.

May 1st, 1710.

The following Address was this Day presented to Her Majesty, by the Honourable Henry Pagett, one of the Knights of the Shire, accompany'd by his Grace the Duke of Hamilton, Sir Edward Littleton, Bar. and some other Gentlemen of the said County; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household. Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously; and afterwards the Gentlemen of the County of Stafford, then present, had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, and others the Gentlemen of the County of Stafford, assembled at the Assizes held for the said County, the 5th of April, 1710.

Most gracious Sovereign,

Stafford County.

SINCE Your Majesty is pleas'd to allow us, in this manner, to approach Your Throne, we take this Opportunity of our Publick Meeting, to follow the seasonable Example of other Counties, with Zeal equal to (and, if possible, exceeding) those before us, to express the Part we have in the common National Concern for Your Sacred Person, Prerogative, and Government, our Holy Church, its Doctrine and Ordinances; in the Defence of which, we are willing to make a chearful Oblation of our Selves and Fortunes, against all Republican, Schismatical, Treacherous, and Inward Enemies, as well as against all Outward and Declar'd Ones. And, as a farther Instance of our Duty, we, in our several Capacities, will carefully endeavour and suppress all the Prophane, Seditious, and Rebellious Tenets, so openly profess'd, and more impudently and perniciously maintain'd and propagated; and will, as we have hitherto done, choose such only, to represent us in succeeding Parliaments, as are true and approv'd Sons of the Church, Dutiful and Loyal Subjects to the Crown, and Faithful to the Succession as by Law establish'd.

And that Your Majesty's Piety and Care, which adorns and defends our holy Church, may be bless'd with a long and happy Reign upon Earth, and afterwards exalt You to a higher Throne of Glory; and that God (whose Minister alone You are) will prosper Your Administration, to secure and transmit, with a Blessing upon Your Memory, to future Ages, our Primitive and most Pure Religion, and our Peaceable and most Perfect Civil Government, shall be the hearty Prayers of,

Your most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

To

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of Your Antient City of Coventry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Coventry City. WE humbly crave Leave (tho' late) to Address Your Majesty, upon the glorious Victory obtained by Your Majesty's Forces, and those of Your Allies, the last Campagne, over Your Enemies, near Mons; whose Advantages seem'd to have given them new Courage, but they were driven from them with a mighty Slaughter, by the Superiour Conduct of Your Majesty's Generals, and the Bravery and undaunted Courage of Your Troops.

The Success of this alone, indicates, that the Almighty fights Your Battles; and the very great Things done after, that He approves Your Cause.

But, seeing the grand Enemy is not yet in earnest to lay down his Arms, we shall chearfully join with our Fellow-Subjects to assist Your Majesty with all our Power, to compel him to a safe and lasting Peace. And because, at this Juncture, some unquiet Spirits would disturb the Repose of Your Majesty's Wise and Clement Reign, we humbly take this Occasion to assure Your Majesty, that we are resolv'd to defend Your Majesty's Person, Your undoubted Right and Title to the Crown, and the Protestant Succession by Law establish'd, against all Opposers whatsoever.

To reach which great Ends, we shall continue to send up such Members of Parliament, who best understand, and pursue the Glory of Your Majesty's Reign, and the Security of our Happy Constitution.

May God Almighty bless Your Majesty with long Life, to be still an illustrious Example of Piety, the Nursing Mother of all Your People, the Refuge of the Distressed, the successful Defender of the just Rights of Mankind, and the Arbiter of Europe.

And may Your Majesty be blessed with Generals Brave and Successful, and with Wise and Faithful Ministers. And may all Your Subjects be Loyal and Obedient to Your Majesty's Government, as they are most Secure and Happy under Your Protection.

Given under the Common Seal of the said City, at an Assembly of their Council there, held the Seventh Day of April, Anno Domini 1710.

April 25. 1710.

This day the following Address was presented to Her Majesty, which she receiv'd very graciously.

May it please Your Majesty,

Westminster City. WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Justices of the Peace of the City and Liberty of Westminster, in Quarter-Sessions assembled, this 12*th day of* April, 1710, with all Humility, beg leave to declare our Abhorrence of all Designs and Attempts of such Persons, who, under the pretence that they apprehend Danger to the Church, from Immoral, Prophane, Wicked, and Malicious Libels, have taken occasion to publish Seditious Doctrines, and make injurious Insinuations of their own, to the Disturbance of the Publick Peace.

We beg leave to assure Your Majesty, that we shall, to the utmost of our Ability, detect and discourage all Persons who shall, by such evil Arts and Practices, favour Seditious and Riotous Assemblies, and raise Jealousies against Your Majesty's Administration, and Your Able Ministers employed therein.

We shall, upon all Occasions, stand by, and defend Your Majesty's Just Title, founded upon the late Happy Revolution, the Church of England as by Law established, and the Toleration to the Protestant Dissenters.

We render Your Majesty our most humble Thanks for Your great Care of the Church of England, and Your unexampled Bounty to the Ministers of it. We acknowledge, as becomes us, the Blessings of Your Good and Glorious Reign; and heartily pray, that after a long Series of Years and Successes to Your Majesty, the Succession to these Your Dominions, in the Protestant Line, may not fail as long as the World endures.

Note, This Paper is design'd to be continu'd, and sold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 d. To whom Gentlemen are desir'd to send Exact Transcripts of such Addresses as shall come to their Hands, and they will be carefully inserted.

A Collection of Addreſſes. N° 5.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Weſtbury, in the County of Wilts. Preſented by Francis Anneſley, Eſq; One of the Members of Parliament for the ſaid Borough; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord-Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold, and the Right Honourable the Earl of Abingdon.

Weſtbury Borough.

WE are deeply ſenſible, that the many and ſignal Victories which Your Arms have obtained Abroad, and the ſettled Peace and Tranquillity which Your Subjects have enjoyed at Home, have been owing firſt to the Goodneſs of God; and next, under that, to the Felicity of Your Majeſty's Government.

As we earneſtly deſire the Continuance of theſe Bleſſings, ſo we do, from the Bottom of our Hearts, lament the Growth of Atheiſm and Irreligion, which may juſtly provoke God to withdraw his Mercies from us, and the Revival of thoſe Rebellious Principles by which this Church and State have once been laid Deſolate, and which manifeſtly tend to diſturb the Quiet of Your Majeſty's Reign, and ſhake the very Foundations upon which the Britiſh Monarchy ſtands.

From the ſeaſonable Check which hath been already given by Your Commons in Parliament, and from the effectual Stop which, we are aſſur'd, will, by Your Majeſty's Care, be ſpeedily put to the ſpreading of Blaſphemous and Seditious Libels; we have good ground to promiſe ourſelves, that God will yet be gracious to us, and that we ſhall be happy under the Government of the heſt of Queens.

That we may not be defeated of theſe Hopes, we ſhall earneſtly deprecate thoſe Judgments which ſuch crying Impieties have deſerved; and ſhall, to our utmoſt Power, oppoſe ſuch Schiſmatical and Republican Spirits, whom nothing can content, but the Extirpation of Epiſcopacy out of the Church, and the Subverſion of that Hereditary Monarchy, which is ſo happily eſtabliſhed in the State.

We have better learn'd the Duty of our inferiour Stations, than to intermeddle in the weighty Affairs of Government: But when Your Majeſty ſhall judge it Expedient to ſummon a new Parliament, we promiſe to chooſe ſuch Repreſentatives, as ſhall be unſuſpected of having any Inclination to Change; Gentlemen of known Affection to Your Majeſty's Perſon, Title, and Prerogative, and, at the ſame time, careful to preſerve the juſt Rights and Liberties of the Subject; determin'd by a Principle to maintain the Doctrine, Worſhip, and Diſcipline of the Church of England; and by a true Chriſtian Moderation, to continue that Indulgence which our Laws have granted to Conſciences truly Scrupulous; willing to contribute to the carrying on of the War, whilſt abſolutely neceſſary; and ready to concur in ſuch Meaſures, as may moſt tend to procure a ſpeedy, ſafe, and laſting Peace. In Teſtimony whereof, we the ſaid Mayor and Burgeſſes have hereunto ſubſcribed our Hands, and fixed the Seal of our Borough, this 14th Day of April, in the Year of our Lord, 1710.

Which Addreſs Mr. Anneſley read to Her Majeſty, who receiv'd it very graciouſly; and he had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

London, May 3d, 1710.

This Day was preſented to Her Majeſty the following Addreſs, by Sir Robert Jenkenſon, Bar. Knight of the Shire for the County of Oxford; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord-Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold; and the Right Honourable the Earl of Abington.

May it pleaſe Your moſt Sacred Majeſty,

Oxon County.

WE the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Deputy-Lieutenants, Gentlemen of the County of Oxon, do unanimouſly beg Leave to expreſs our extreme Grief, that the Seditious Principles, ſo openly maintain'd and avow'd, of late, ſhould make it neceſſary, for all Your Loyal Subjects, to give Your Majeſty freſh Aſſurances of their inviolable Duty and Affection, and to declare their Abhorrence of all Doctrines which allow Subjects to reſiſt their Sovereign; which are propagated in Defiance of the Laws of God, and of this Realm; and which are utterly inconſiſtent with the Quiet and Subſiſtence of Government. We ſhall always be firm to thoſe Principles of Duty to our Sovereign, which we have profeſs'd, and which have been taught in the moſt perilous Times, by that famous Univerſity in whoſe Neigbourhood we live; and we ſhall endeavour to tranſmit the ſame to our Poſterity, that their Loyalty may be Hereditary, as Your Majeſty's Title is to the Throne of Your Anceſtors.

Tho' we were aſtoniſh'd to ſee the moſt Factious Poſitions reviv'd and propagated under the beſt and mildeſt of Governments, yet we the leſs wonder at it, ſince it is eaſy to obſerve, that the moſt open Patrons of Reſiſtance, are equally Encouragers of Blaſphemy and Prophaneneſs; and that the poiſon'd Arrows which have been ſhot as well againſt God as his Vicegerent, have come out of the ſame Quiver.

There ſhall be nothing wanting in us, to reſtrain the Inſolence, and to defeat the Malice of the Enemies of God and of Your Majeſty; and when Your Majeſty, to the extreme Joy of all Your loyal Subjects, ſhall, in Your Princely Wiſdom, judge it proper to call another Parliament, we doubt not to chooſe ſuch as ſhall truly repreſent this County, always eminent for its Loyalty, by doing all that is in their power to ſupport the juſt Prerogative of Your Crown, the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd, the Welfare of Your People, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion as ſettled in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

After which, he and the reſt of the Gentlemen attending, had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

The following Addreſs from Clifton-Dartmouth-Hardneſs, in the County of Devon, was preſented to Her Majeſty, by Nathanael Herne, and Frederick Herne, Eſquires, Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough. Which Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Magiſtrates, Bayliffs, Free Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Clifton-Dartmouth-Hardneſs, in the County of Devon.

Clifton-Dartmouth-Hardneſs Borough.

AS we cannot, but with the greateſt Joy and Satisfaction congratulate Your Majeſty upon the good News of Your Majeſty's Enemies turning their Backs, and running from Your Majeſty's Forces, under the Conduct of Your great General, the Duke of Marlborough, in Conjunction with the Allies, (which ſeems to preſage a happy and glorious Campagne (which God grant) ſo we think ourſelves in Duty bound to aſſure Your Majeſty, That as we ourſelves are, and always will continue ſteady and loyal to Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, both in Church and State; ſo we will take care (as we have hitherto done) to ſend ſuch Repreſentatives to Parliament, as ſhall be Men of known Integrity, and inviolable Loyalty to Your Majeſty, truly Zealous for maintaining the Proteſtant Religion, and the Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, of a firm Conſtancy and Zeal to the Principles and Intereſt of the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſhed, and not in the leaſt tainted with thoſe new-fangled Notions of Reſiſtance, which have been of late ſo hotly revived amongſt us, and which directly tend to the utter Ruin and Subverſion of the beſt Conſtitution and Eſtabliſhment: Which, that God may ever preſerve and long continue Your Majeſty to be the Support of, is, and always ſhall be, the daily hearty Prayers of Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

London,

London, May 2.

The following Addreſs was this day preſented to Her Majeſty, by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Downe, one of the Knights of the Shire for the County of York, attended by the Lord Viſcount Caſtleton, Sir Arthur Kay, Sir Bryan Stapleton, Sir Geo. Cooke, Robert Byerley, Eſq; Thomas Thornhill, Eſq; William Neville, Eſq; William Buſfield, Eſq; —— Tarbrough, Eſq; —— Tarbrough, Gent. and Mr. Fothergill; and introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Leeds. Which Addreſs was graciouſly receiv'd, and the Gentlemen had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, the Grand-Jury, and other Gentlemen, at the General Seſſions of the Peace, held for the Weſt-Riding of the County of York, at Pontefract, in the ſaid County, on the 18th day of April, in the Ninth Year of Your Majeſty's Reign; and alſo of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and ſeveral other Inhabitants of the Borough of Pontefract, aforeſaid.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful Subjects, and Sons of that Church, which hath always taught us to Fear God and Honour the Queen, and not to meddle with thoſe that are given to Change, being deeply ſenſible, that we live in an Age when Men of all Sects in Religion, join with Men of no Religion, to blaſpheme God, deſpiſe Dominion, and ſpeak Evil of Dignities, preaching and printing Doctrines and Poſitions equally deſtructive to the Rights of the Church, and the Juſt Prerogative of the Crown; Weſt-Riding of Yorkſhire.

Humbly beg Leave, with the greateſt Sincerity, to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we abhor, deteſt, and abjure all Atheiſtical, and Schiſmatical, Antimonarchical, and Seditious Principles and Practices. And as Your Majeſty has always made the Laws the Rule of Your Government, ſo we, in our ſeveral Stations, ſhall make the ſame Laws the Meaſure of our Allegiance, which does not depend upon the Will of the People, but is founded upon the Laws of God; and is an Eſſential Part of our Conſtitution; which Conſtitution, under Your Majeſty's Government, both in Church and State, as the one is Monarchical, the other Epiſcopal, with the Proteſtant Succeſſion of the Crown, as by Law limited and eſtabliſh'd, We will, to the utmoſt of our Power, Support, Maintain, and Defend.

And our moſt humble Prayers are, that God would extend Your Majeſty's Life and Reign, as far beyond the common Term of either, as Your Vertues are uncommon, exceed and outſhine all others. And may each Year be Crown'd with freſh Inſtances of Divine Goodneſs to Your Majeſty, Your Allies, and theſe Kingdoms.

And We will endeavour to chooſe ſuch Repreſentatives in Parliament, whoſe Loyalty to the Crown, and good Affection to the Church, hath been conſpicuous, not only in themſelves, but their Anceſtors.

London, May 3.

This Day was preſented to Her Majeſty the following Addreſs, by the Hon. Heneage Finch, Eſq; attended by ſeveral Gentlemen of the County of Surry, and introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold; and his Grace the Duke of Northumberland, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly; and thoſe Gentlemen that attended it, had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord-Lieutenant, High-Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenant, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, and others of the County of Surry.

Moſt Dread Sovereign!

WE cannot omit this Opportunity to lay ourſelves at Your Majeſty's Feet, with our moſt ſincere Aſſurances, that we will, to our utmoſt Power, Support and Defend Your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, and Your undoubted Right to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms, againſt all Oppoſers whatſoever; Maintain the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover; And alſo the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd, with her moſt Pure and Apoſtolical Doctrines; declaring our Abhorrence of all Popiſh, Republican, Schiſmatical, and other Principles which are repugnant to Monarchy, introductive to Rebellion, and which can only tend to make Your Majeſty's Government uneaſy and precarious. Surry County.

May the King of Kings long preſerve Your Majeſty to Rule over us, and to put in Execution Your late Royal Declaration from the Throne, of Your true and tender Concern for the Church. And we do promiſe, that in our ſeveral Stations, we will moſt dutifully and affectionately contribute, what in us lieth, to the Peace and Happineſs of Your Majeſty's Reign.

Note, This is the Addreſs, Word for Word, which the Poſt-Man, of April the 11th, Numb. 1869, advertized to be of a Seditious Nature.

And likewiſe advertized to be of a Seditious Nature in the Daily-Courant, April the 11th, Numb. 2641.

And alſo in the Obſervator, of Wedneſday, April the 12th, 1710, Numb. 25, in theſe Words, viz. Seditious Addreſſes which were repreſented at the Aſſizes of Surrey and Shrewsbury, &c.

The

The Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, &c. of the County of Middleſex, and City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, agreed on the 11th of April, 1710.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

Middleſex County.

WE Your moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Juſtices, Grand-Jury, and others of Your Majeſty's County of Middleſex, and City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, there aſſembled upon the Occaſion of Your Majeſty's Commiſſion of Oyer and Terminer, for the Tryal of the ſeveral Perſons accuſed of the late tumultuous and rebellious Riots, beg Leave to declare, as becomes us, our Abhorrence of thoſe Seditious Practices, and all other Attempts that have lately been ſo often repeated againſt Your Majeſty's Title and Government, to move and incite Your Subjects, (under a Pretence of Paſſive-Obedience and Non-Reſiſtance) to Rebellion and Sedition, and to diſturb the Publick Peace.

We do farther humbly pray Your Majeſty will be pleaſed graciouſly to accept our Aſſurances, that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, according to our Duty, imitate the Example of Your wiſe and faithful Miniſtry, in preſerving the Publick Peace, preventing and puniſhing all Seditious and Riotous Aſſemblies; and will ſtand by, and defend Your Majeſty's Title, founded upon the late happy Revolution; and the Church of England, as by Law eſtabliſh'd; and do whatever elſe may contribute to make us worthy of the Bleſſings we enjoy under Your Majeſty's moſt glorious and auſpicious Reign. Which, that it may long continue, and that Your Scepter may never deſcend to other Hands, than thoſe on whom it is entail'd by the Laws, which have ſettled the Succeſſion in the Proteſtant Line, are the hearty Prayers, and, to our utmoſt Abilities, ſhall ever be, the conſtant and zealous Endeavours of, &c.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Berks County.

WE the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen aſſembled at the Aſſizes, held for this County of Berks, can't be unconcerned at the continued Troubles Your Majeſty receives from the Reſtleſs Endeavours us'd, to create a Diſlike in Your Royal Mind, of the late Proceedings of this preſent Parliament, by whom Your undoubted Title to the Throne of theſe Realms, and the Settlement of the Succeſſion of the Crown in the Proteſtant Line, have been ſo juſtly and neceſſarily aſſerted, and who have expreſs'd a Zeal for Your Majeſty's Service, not likely to be exceeded by any that ſhall enſue, and which hath already procured ſuch happy Succeſſes againſt the Common Enemy.

For theſe Reaſons, we think ourſelves obliged to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we will always endeavour to demonſtrate our Affection and Duty to Your Majeſty, by a firm Compliance with thoſe excellent Recommendations we have ſo lately received from the Throne, and by diſcountenancing all Seditious Attempts, to create Uneaſineſs among Your Subjects.

Note, This Paper is deſign'd to be continu'd, and ſold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 d. To whom Gentlemen are deſir'd to ſend Exact Tranſcripts of ſuch Addreſſes as ſhall come to their Hands, and they ſhall be carefully inſerted.

A Collection of Addreſſes. N° 6.

London, April the 28th, 1710.

The following Addreſs from the Univerſity of Oxford, was this Day preſented to Her Majeſty by the Vice-Chancellor, the Heads of the Houſes, ſeveral Doctors, and the Proctors in their Formalities; introduced by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, their Chancellor.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Univerſity of Oxford.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Maſters, and Scholars of the Univerſity of Oxon, being deeply ſenſible of the many great and ineſtimable Bleſſings God has beſtow'd upon this Church and Nation, in placing and preſerving Your Majeſty upon the Throne of Your Royal Anceſtors; moſt humbly beg Leave, in this publick and ſolemn Manner, to give our Thanks to Almighty God; and to aſſure Your Majeſty of the Continuance of our inviolable Duty and Allegiance to Your Sacred Perſon and Government. And, as that Duty will never ſuffer us to call in queſtion any Title by which Your Majeſty holds Your Crown, particularly That which is Hereditary: So it will never permit us to give any Countenance to that Popiſh Republican Doctrine of Reſiſtance of Princes; the very Mention of which, at this time, under the beſt of Queens, ought to be deteſted and abhorr'd. Oxford Univerſity.

We moſt humbly pray Your Majeſty alſo to believe, that we do, and will always uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to promote the Peace and Quiet of Your Reign, by teaching and encouraging ſuch Principles as may tend to true Vertue, Piety, and Loyalty. 'Tis therefore not without very great Trouble we obſerve, that notwithſtanding Your Majeſty's moſt pious Care to prevent it, yet ill Men have found Means to propagate ſo many blaſphemous and heretical Doctrines among us; which tend not more to the undermining of Religion, than they do to the diſturbance of the Civil Peace.

Neither can we, at our Approaches to Your Majeſty, ever ceaſe to repeat our Thanks for that great Affection You have always expreſs'd to the eſtabliſh'd Church; which You have enrich'd by Your Bounty, and adorn'd by Your Piety. And when we conſider this Church as fram'd moſt exactly according to the Primitive and Apoſtolical Model, we cannot but, with the deepeſt Sorrow, bewail the Danger of ſo many deluded Souls as are miſled into the damnable Sin of Schiſm; tho' we, by no means, preſume to diſapprove of that Legal Impunity which is allow'd to Conſciences truly Tender.

And that we may, in the moſt effectual manner, approve ourſelves moſt Loyal Subjects to Your Majeſty, moſt Dutiful Sons of the Church, true Lovers of our Country, and Affectionate Brethren to our Fellow-Subjects; we will uſe our utmoſt Care to be always repreſented in Parliament, by ſuch Members as will inviolably maintain Your Majeſty's juſt Prerogative, the Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, the Rights of the Church, and Liberties of the Subject. The compaſſing of which great Ends, will complete the Glory obtain'd by Your Victorious Arms: Which we pray Almighty God may continue ſuch, till a ſafe and honourable Peace ſhall leave no farther Uſe for them.

May it pleaſe our moſt Gracious God to bleſs Your Majeſty with a proſperous Reign upon Earth, and to crown You with a late Immortality.

To which Addreſs Her Majeſty gave this moſt Gracious Anſwer.

Mr. Vice-Chancellor,

I Thank you for your kind Addreſs, and the Affection you have ſhewn to Me and My Government, and your Concern for the Proteſtant Succeſſion.

After this, the Vice-Chancellor, and the reſt of the Gentlemen, had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, in the County of Oxford, was preſented to Her Majeſty, May 3. 1710, by Sir John Walter, Bar. one of the Repreſantatives for the City of Oxford; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord-Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold; and the Right Hon. the Earl of Abingdon, Lord High-Steward of that City. Which Addreſs was very graciouſly receiv'd; and Sir John Walter, after having read it to Her Majeſty, had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, in the County of Oxford.

Moſt gracious Sovereign!

Oxford City.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, in the County of Oxford, humbly beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty of our hearty Concern, with the reſt of our loyal Countrymen, in the utmoſt Abhorrence of thoſe Antimonarchical, Republican, and Rebellious Principles, which have been, of late, ſo induſtriouſly propagated, Principles advanc'd in direct Oppoſition to the Scriptures, to the Doctrines of our Church, and to the Laws of our Land. It can never enter into our Hearts to conceive, That Your Majeſty's Government can be Eſtabliſh'd by Reſiſtance, or Overturn'd by Subjection and Obedience.

As we do, from the Bottom of our Souls, beſeech Almighty God, to prolong the Life of Your moſt Sacred Perſon, and to perpetuate the Proteſtant Succeſſion, as by Law eſtabliſh'd, for the Preſervation of our happy Conſtitution both in Church and State; ſo will we take Care, in the enſuing Parliaments, to chooſe (as we have hitherdo done) ſuch Repreſentatives, as ſhall have a juſt Regard, as well to Your Majeſty's undoubted Hereditary Title to the Crown, as to the Lives, Liberties, and Properties of their Fellow-Subjects: Such as are true Sons of the Church of England, moſt affectionately Loyal to Your Majeſty, and Zealous to preſerve the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Recorder, Burgeſſes, and Freemen of Your Majeſty's ancient Corporation of Clitheroe, in the County-Palatine of Lancaſter. Preſented by Chriſtopher Parker and Edward Harvey, Eſqs; Repreſentatives for the ſaid Corporation; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord-Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold, and the Right Honourable the Earl of Angleſea.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty

Clitheroe Corporation.

TO give us Leave, amongſt the reſt of Your loyal Subjects, to expreſs our Duty and Fidelity to Your Gracious Majeſty, and our Joy and Thankfulneſs for the Stop, which (we hope) is put to the Growth of Atheiſm, Blaſphemy, and Prophaneneſs, by the juſt and ſeaſonable Cenſure which Your Commons in Parliament aſſembled, have paſs'd on ſeveral moſt wicked and blaſphemous Books, their Authors and Publiſhers, who Deſigns were not only to Aſſault and Wound the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd, but, as far as in them lay, to Root out and Deſtroy the Chriſtian Religion, and Diſſolve the Eſtabliſh'd Government in Church and State. It was from theſe Common Enemies to Chriſtianity on the one Hand, and an Antimonarchical and Republick Spirit on the other, that the Church (we humbly conceive) had Reaſon to apprehend Danger, as well from an Abuſe of a gracious Toleration by Law, which was only deſign'd to give Eaſe to Men of Conſciences truly Scrupulous.

It is with great Chearfulneſs and Submiſſion, that we do, and have born our Share in the Expence of a long and coſtly War; but we now hope ſoon to enjoy the Benefits of an honourable and laſting Peace, as the Effect of Your Majeſty's Piety and Wiſdom, whereby the Church and her Clergy may become Safe againſt all the Attempts of her Enemies; the Monarchy ſhine in its full Luſtre, to the Honour of Your Majeſty's Crown and Dignity; the Proteſtant Succeſſion ſecured; and the People preſerved in the Enjoyment of their Liberties and Properties.

To the Furtherance and Attainment of ſuch great and deſirable Bleſſings, we do aſſure Your Majeſty, that we ſhall ever continue Loyal to Your moſt Sacred Perſon, and chooſe ſuch Members to repreſent us in Parliament, as ſhall heartily concur with Your Majeſty, as well in theſe as in all other Your moſt juſt and pious Intentions, for the Good of theſe Kingdoms both in Church and State.

And it ſhall be our earneſt and unanimous Prayer to God, That Your Majeſty may long Reign over us here, and hereafter enjoy an Eternal Crown of Glory.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly, and the Two Members, with the Gentlemen that accompanied them, had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

Kenſington,

Kenſington, May 7.

This day was preſented to Her Majeſty the following Addreſs from the Borough of Leiceſter, by Sir George Beaumont Bar. introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Earl of Denbigh, which was receiv'd very graciouſly; and he, with the other Gentlemen attending, had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

May it pleaſe Your moſt gracious Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of Your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Leiceſter, with a dutiful Concern, obſerving the reſtleſs Endeavours of ſome Perſons, to diſturb the Peace and Quiet of Your Majeſty's Government, by raiſing Diſputes about Your Majeſty's undoubted Title to the Crown, invidiouſly traducing the Apoſtolical Doctrines of the Church of England eſtabliſh'd by Law, inculcating ſuch Tenets under the Beſt of Princes, as (by their own Confeſſion) have no Uſe but under the worſt of Tyrants: Humbly beg Leave to declaim all ſuch Practices, and to aſſure Your Majeſty, that as we are duly ſenſible of our great Happineſs, in living under the Benign Influence of Your Majeſty's moſt gracious Government, in an excellent Conſtitution, both of Church and State, which, by Your Majeſty's moſt Wiſe Proviſion in Parliament, is ſecur'd to us and our Poſterity; ſo we, with all Thankfulneſs, recognize the unſpeakable Goodneſs of God and of Your Majeſty, by whom theſe Bleſſings are convey'd to us. And as we ſhall be careful, in our Spheres, to diſcountenance and ſuppreſs all Principles and Practices repugnant to them; ſo ſhall we likewiſe continue our Endeavours, upon all Occaſions, to make Choice of ſuch Repreſentatives as, being Zealous for them, will contribute readily to their Maintenance and Security of them, as becomes Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects. Leiceſter Borough.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have hereto put the Common Seal of our Borough, the 3d day of May, in the Ninth Year of Your Majeſty's moſt Auſpicious Reign, Annoq; Dom. 1710.

Kenſington, May the 7th.

This Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty, this day, by Sir Thomas Powis, Knight, Her Majeſty's firſt Serjeant at Law, Recorder of the ſaid Town; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, and attended by ſeveral Gentlemen, Members of that Corporation. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly; and the Gentlemen had the Honour of kiſſing Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty, and other principal Inhabitants of the Town of Ludlow, in the County of Salop.

Dread Sovereign!

WITH the moſt profound Humility and Submiſſion, we beg Leave to embrace this Opportunity of renewing the moſt Solemn Aſſurances of our unreſerved Affections to Your Majeſty's moſt Sacred Perſon, our conſcientious Regard to Your Awful Prerogative, our fervent Zeal for the Epiſcopal Church of England, which is the Glory and Envy of the World, and our unfeigned Love to the Monarchical Government. Ludlow Town.

And, as we enjoy the gracious Influences of it, we will continue our utmoſt Endeavours to ſupport and maintain it, againſt all Enemies both Foreign and Domeſtick; and that theſe Bleſſings may be entirely tranſmitted to late Poſterity, ſhall inviolably adhere to the Proteſtant Succeſſion, as now ſettled by Act of Limitation.

It ſhall be always our Care and Concern, (who have been ever Remarkable for our ſteady Principles to Monarchy and Epiſcopacy, and have ſo inconſiderable a Number amongſt us diſaffected to either) to make Choice of ſuch to repreſent us in Parliament, as are unſhaken in their Loyalty to Your Majeſty, zealouſly affected to our Church, the only Center of Union, true to the real Intereſt of our preſent happy Conſtitution, and abhor all Latitudinarian Schemes, that tend to ſubvert and undermine our Eſtabliſhment.

May Your Reign continue always Succeſsful, and Your Arms Victorious; Long may You be the Glory of the Britiſh Throne which You now adorn, the Support and Defender of our Church, which You ſo eminently recommend by the bright Luſtre of Your Example; and the happy Inſtrument (under God) of reſtoring an honourable and laſting Peace to all Europe.

LONDON.

The following Addreſs has been preſented to Her Majeſty, by Sir Matthew Dudley, Robert Breton, Eſq; Chairman of the Seſſions, and ſeveral other Gentlemen of the ſaid County; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, principal Secretary of State.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, and other Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Northampton.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Northampton County. WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Juſtices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, and other Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Northampton, aſſembled in our open and general Quarter-Seſſions at Northampton, the 18*th Day of* April, 1710, moſt heartily Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the early and happy Succeſſes of Your Forces, and thoſe of Your Allies, under the Conduct of the Renowned General the Duke of Marlborough, in paſſing the French Lines.

This gives Us juſt Reaſon to hope, that the Common Enemy of Chriſtendom, will, before the End of this Campagne, be reduced by Force of Arms, to offer ſuch Terms of Peace, as will eſtabliſh the Tranquillity of Europe upon a ſure and laſting Foundation; and that he will no longer truſt to his amuſing Treaties, having daily experienc'd, that the Conduct and Bravery of Your Officers and Soldiers, and their many glorious Victories, have ſo intimidated his Armies, that they are ſeiz'd with a pannick Fear upon their Approach, and flee before them.

And We humbly beg Leave to take this Opportunity to renew our Aſſurances, that We will, with all the Zeal and Steadineſs that become a Loyal and Well-affected People, who live ſo happily under the Adminiſtration of the Beſt of Princes, ſtand by, and defend, againſt all Oppoſers whatever, Your Majeſty's undoubted Right and Title, Our preſent Conſtitution both in Church and State, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion as ſettled by Law, the Bleſſed Effects and Happy Conſequences of the late Revolution.

We utterly deteſt the Traiterous and Seditious Practices of Papiſts, Nonjurors, and other diſaffected Perſons, who have advanced a Doctrine, which only tends to create Jealouſies and foment Differences amongſt Us, by inſinuating the Danger of the Church and Monarchy, by exclaiming againſt the Toleration to Our Diſſenting-Brethren, and by other falſe and malicious Practices, have been ſo inſolent as to endeavour to raiſe Scruples and Doubts in the Minds of Your People, even concerning Your Majeſty's rightful and lawful Title, to excite againſt Your Government Your Subjects, and eſpecially the Clergy, who have received ſo large a Portion of Your Majeſty's unparallel'd Bounty, and to ſtir up to Rebellious Mutinies ſome of the Inferiour and more Ignorant People, in open Defiance to Your Majeſty's Royal Authority, and Your High Court of Parliament.

And We do aſſure Your Majeſty, that We will make it Our utmoſt Endeavour to detect, diſappoint and puniſh all ſuch villainous and dangerous Attempts, to diſcountenance and prevent all Prophaneneſs and Immorality, to preſerve the Publick Peace, to promote Union, and heal all Diſſenſion among our Selves and to do whatever elſe may conduce to the Welfare of theſe Kingdoms and Your Glory; And that Your Majeſty may enjoy a long and proſperous Reign, is the hearty Prayer of,

MADAM,

Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Obedient Subjects and Servants.

Note, This Paper is deſign'd to be continu'd, and ſold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 d. To whom Gentlemen are deſir'd to ſend Exact Tranſcripts of ſuch Addreſſes as ſhall come to their Hands, and they ſhall be carefully inſerted.

Collection of Addreſſes. N° 7.

Kenſington, May 8.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of St. Albans, was preſented to Her Majeſty, by John Gape, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord-Chamberlain of Her Jeſty's Houſhold, and the Right Hon. Thomas Coke, Eſq; Vice-Chamberlain.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly, and Mr. Gape had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of Your Majeſty's moſt ancient Borough of St. Albans, in the County of Hertford.

May it pleaſe Your moſt gracious Majeſty,

AMongſt other Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, (on ſo moving an Occaſion) to permit us, the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants, of Your Majeſty's moſt ancient Borough of St. Albans, to lay before Your Majeſty our utter Abhorrence of all Sciſmatical, Antimonarchical, and Republican Principles, which may threaten, or violate, or any way injure Your Majeſty's Perſon and Royal Authority, the Unity of our Eſtabliſh'd Church, or the Peace of Your Majeſty's Kingdoms. St. Albans Borough.

In Deteſtation of ſuch pernicious Principles, we humbly crave Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we are thoroughly perſuaded, that Your Majeſty's Right and Prerogative-Royal, is derived from the King of Kings alone; and that therefore Your Majeſty is accountable to no Power on Earth, except to Your own Conſcience.

This is the Doctrine of the Holy Scriptures, and of our eſtabliſh'd Church of England, to which Your Majeſty is ſo tender a Nurſing-Mother, and ſo bright an Ornament; a Church, in its Doctrine and Conſtitution truly Apoſtolical, and (to Her Praiſe be it ſpoken) ever yet untainted, in Her fixt Principles of Loyalty and Subjection to Her Sovereigns.

And we are the more deſirous to expreſs our Adherence to theſe Principles, as believing them to be truly Religious towards God, and, under him, the chiefeſt Security of Your Majeſty's Perſon, and undoubted Right and Title to the Crown of Your Royal Progenitors, and of the Proteſtant Succeſſion, as by Law eſtabliſh'd, and moſt effectual to diſappoint the Pretender, and all his Adherents.

And if to caſt off ſuch Principles, if to live without God, and without Government, be the Liberty ſo much contended for by the Patrons of Popular Power; we can, with Patience, hear ourſelves daily inſulted with the Taunts of Slavery, tho' not without a due Senſe of the Inſolence of audacious Men, towards God, as well as Your Majeſty's Crown and Dignity.

And we fully perſuade ourſelves, That the moſt effectual Way that we can take, to ſecure the preſent, and provide for the future Happineſs of Your Majeſty, the Church, Kingdom, our Selves, and our Poſterity, will be the exerting our utmoſt Power, in our ſeveral Stations and Capacities, to curb and ſuppreſs all Irreligious, Immoral, Seditious, and Rebellious Tenets; and chooſe ſuch Repreſentatives as, we are perſuaded, will make it their firſt and laſt Care, to ſecure the Peace and Safety of Your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government, and preſerve Your Subjects, as in their juſt and rightful Liberties, ſo in all conſcientious and loyal Obedience to Your Majeſty's moſt pious and gentle Government.

May the God of Heaven, who hath ſet Your Majeſty on the Throne, ſet his Angels as a Guard about it: May He, who hath granted Your Majeſty ſo bleſſed a Progreſs in the glorious Work before You, crown You with the Honour of finiſhing it: And may Your Majeſty, after a long and happy Reign, over a willing and obedient People, here upon Earth, (the benign Influences of which, may our late Poſterity live to enjoy) be crown'd with an eternal Diadem of Glory and Felicity in Heaven.

The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty, on Wedneſday the 10th inſtant, by John Jeffreys, Eſq; and Edward Jeffreys, Eſq; Repreſentatives for the Corporation of Brecon, attended by ſeveral Gentlemen of that County, and introduced by his Grace James Duke of Ormond.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Grand-Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County and Town of Brecon, aſſembled at the Grand-Seſſions held for the ſaid County, upon Monday the 10*th of* April, 1710.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

Brecon County and Town.

YOUR Majeſty's upright and mild Adminiſtration, ſince Your Acceſſion to the Throne, and Your Pious and Tender Concern for our truly Catholick and Apoſtolical Church, have derived ſuch univerſal and ſenſible Advantages upon all Your Subjects, that we ſhould be very unworthy the Benefits thereof, ſhould we not, upon all Occaſions, give Your Majeſty freſh Aſſurances, that our Lives and Fortunes are ever ready to be ſacrificed in the Defence of Your Sacred Perſon, thro' whom God conveys ſuch ineſtimable Bleſſings.

The happy Union of Your Two Kingdoms could not be effected, nor the Exorbitant Power of France reduc'd within its juſt Bounds, till Your glorious Reign; that Reign, in which we hope to ſee all Your Subjects united in Religion as well as Intereſt, and thereby our unſpotted Church ſecur'd to future Ages, in its Primitive Purity; And, to that end, we ſhall chooſe ſuch worthy Patriots to repreſent us, as are truly Affectionate to Your Majeſty, and Oppoſers of all Atheiſtical, Diſloyal, and Republican Principles.

That Your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous; and that, having completed all things contributory to Your own Glory, and the Good of Your People, You may, late, (very late) receive an Immortal Crown, the promis'd Reward of ſuch Exemplary Piety and Goodneſs, is the ſincere and united Prayers of

Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly; and the Gentlemen attending, had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, High-Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, Aſſiſtants, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Banbury, in the County of Oxon.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

Banbury Borough.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, being always truly ſenſible of Your Majeſty's pious Care of, and fervent Zeal for, the Welfare and Proſperity of our moſt holy Religion, and happy Conſtitution, crave Leave to renew our Aſſurances of our inviolable Duty and Loyalty to Your Majeſty, by teſtifying our juſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence of the Seditious Principles of thoſe, who, under the ſpecious Pretence of Securing the Rights, Liberties, and Properties of the People, have, of late, openly profeſſed, and endeavoured to propagate the Doctrine of Reſiſtance; a Doctrine equally deſtructive of Your juſt Prerogative, and of (what it would ſeem to ſecure to us) the Well-being of Your People; contrary to the Law of God, and the Practices both of the Apoſtles and Primitive Chriſtians, even in the moſt perilous Times; and the more abominable, at this Juncture, (as it is a Sin without Temptation) under the beſt and mildeſt of Governments.

The Senſe of our Duty to God, Your Majeſty, and our moſt happy Conſtitution, ſhall always keep us firm to our old Engliſh Principles of Loyalty to our Sovereign, and teach us to tranſmit the ſame to our lateſt Poſterity; that if God Almighty ſhall deny us the Bleſſing of Iſſue from Your Majeſty, to Reign over us, After-Ages may enjoy, under the Government eſtabliſh'd by Law in the illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, the ſame Bleſſings we now, and long may we, enjoy, under Your Majeſty's moſt ſerene and auſpicious Reign.

London,

London, May 11, 1710.

The following Addreſs from the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Canterbury, was, this Day, preſented to Her Majeſty, by the Mayor, Chamberlain, and Town-Clerk of the ſaid City; introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Lord Guernſey, attended by Henry Lee and John Hardreſs, Eſqs; their late Repreſentatives, and by ſeveral other Gentlemen; who being very graciouſly received, had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Canterbury, aſſembled in Burghmote, moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects to Your Majeſty, not only from Inclination and Gratitude, but by Principles grounded on that Apoſtolical Doctrine, which is the ſure Foundation and Glory of the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd, do beg Leave humbly to aſſure Your Majeſty, that as we are ready to part with all that is dear to us, for the Preſervatiou of Your moſt Sacred Perſon and Government, as alſo the Proteſtant Succeſſion, againſt all foreign Enemies or Pretenders whatſoever; So we acknowledge, and are likewiſe ready, at the ſame Hazard, to aſſert and maintain Your Majeſty's Hereditary and Undoubted Right to the Crown of theſe Realms, againſt all thoſe who, to render it Precarious, ſeditiouſly revive Poſitions, Fatal heretofore to Your Bleſſed Grandfather, and Deſtructive to this Church and Nation; and againſt all Promoters of Atheiſtical, Immoral, and Republican Tenets. And in order to ſuppreſs them, we ſhall endeavour to chooſe ſuch Repreſentatives, at the next Election, as we know will not be afraid to juſtify that Duty they and we owe to GOD, and Your Majeſty as his Vicegerent. Canterbury City.

May Your Majeſty, after a long and happy Reign over us, receive, as a Reward of Your Piety, Goodneſs, and Clemency, an Immortal Crown of Glory in the World to come. Theſe are the ſincere Prayers of, &c.

Given under our Common-Seal the 4th Day of May, in the 9th Year of Your Majeſty's Reign.

Kenſington, May 11.

The following Addreſs from the City of New Sarum, was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Gauntlett, Eſq; introduc'd by the Right Honourable Thomas Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery, Lord High-Steward of the ſaid City. Which Addreſs was receiv'd very graciouſly.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, congratulate Your Majeſty upon that happy Succeſs it hath pleaſed God to beſtow on You and Your Allies, at the firſt Openiug the Campagne, do withal lay hold on this Opportunity of throwing ourſelves at Your Royal Feet, with Hearts knowing no Bounds in Loyalty, nor Reſerve in Obedience. We heartily implore the ſame Divine Goodneſs, which thus goes forth with our Armies, to continue on our Side, and lengthen yet that wonderful Train of Succeſſes, we have, with Amazement, beheld under Your Glorious Reign, without Interruption, till they are crown'd by the Iſſue of a bleſſed and durable Peace, throughout all Chriſtendom. New Sarum City.

And when God, through You, (his Choſen Inſtrument) ſhall have made War to ceaſe Abroad, may it alſo make us Men of one Mind in Your Kingdom at Home. May He ſtill the Waves of our Sea, and the Madneſs of the People; may He put a Stop to the ſpreading Gangreen which openly ſpeaks Danger to the Life of all Government; that Peſtilence that walketh by Noon-day; thoſe pernicious New Doctrines, ſo expreſly contrary to the Spirit of the Goſpel, the whole Tenour of our Laws, the avow'd Principle of our Holy Church, the Safety of the Prince, and even the Quiet of the People; who being thus taught, and themſelves left Judges of that Right, will always be tempted to find Occaſion of Reſiſtance. But we eſteem our Happineſs in Your Majeſty too great a Bleſſing to be truſted on ſuch Sandy Foundations.

May Your Majeſty Sit ſafe, and Reign long in Your Subjects Hearts; may Monarchy, and the Church eſtabliſh'd, flouriſh under Your Eye and that of Providence; and after many, many Days, be deliver'd down into thoſe faithful Proteſtant Hands, in which the pious Care of our Laws have ſecur'd them.

Kenſington,

Kenſington, May 10.

This Day was preſented to Her Majeſty the following Addreſs from the County and Borough of Carnarvon, by William Griffith, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Earl of Cholmondley. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly; and he had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign!

Carnarvon County and Borough.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County and Borough of Carnarvon, aſſembled at the great Seſſions held for the ſaid County, the 8th Day of April, 1710, humbly beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we ſhall, to the utmoſt of our Power, reſolutely Defend Your ſacred Perſon from Inſults at Home, and Invaſion from Abroad, with ardent Zeal ſupport Monarchy, and ſtrenuouſly vindicate and aſſert Epiſcopacy, in oppoſition to all its Enemies.

May God long preſerve Your Sacred Majeſty to protect and adorn the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd; and that our moſt Excellent Church may bleſs, ſtand by, and ſupport Your Majeſty, are the hearty Prayers of Your Majeſty's moſt faithful and obedient Subjects.

Kenſington, May 12.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Newton, in the County of Lancaſter, was preſented to Her Majeſty, by John Ward, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough; introduc'd by the Right Honourable John Earl of Angleſey. Which Addreſs was graciouſly receiv'd, and Mr. Ward had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Steward, Bayliff, and Burgeſſes of Your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Newton, in the County-Palatine of Lancaſter; together with the Gentlemen and moſt ſubſtantial Freeholders of the Fee of Mackerfeild, (containing 22 Townſhips) belonging to the Mannour of Newton aforeſaid.

Newton Borough.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, cannot, at this Juncture, acquit ourſelves to Your Majeſty and our own Conſciences, without openly declaring (which we here do, in the moſt ſolemn manner) our utter Deteſtation and Abhorrence of that Spirit of Blaſphemy and Prophaneneſs, Schiſm and Sedition, which hath, of late, ſo inſolently ſhew'd itſelf in this Land; and will, ſo certainly, bring down upon it God's ſevereſt Vengeance, if not timely prevented by Your Majeſty's great Piety and Wiſdom.

When we, with Grief, reflect, how Your Royal Grandfather (whoſe Goodneſs You inherit) yielded to the Importunities of Republicans and Schiſmaticks, till he became a Martyr; and the Loyaliſt, who adher'd to him, a Prey to the implacable Malice of thoſe Enemies to Monarchy; who, under the Pretext of Conſcience and Duty, learn'd firſt to ſeparate his Power from his Perſon, and then ſoon deſtroy'd both, continuing their Hypocriſy to the end, in the Mock-form of a Tryal, and Pretence of Law and Judicature. And when we conſider, how that horrid Crime of Regicide, while, by ſome, ſeriouſly commemorated and lamented, is, by others, extenuated, if not excuſed, and the Law yet in force for an Anniverſary Humiliation, is tranſgreſſed and ridiculed. How the very ſame Antimonarchical Tenets and Poſitions, which brought on that ſad Cataſtrophe, are now reviv'd, and openly and audaciouſly advanc'd and avow'd. We cannot, but with Reaſon fear the like fatal Effects to Your Sacred Majeſty, and this Nation, if not timely prevented.

And, as from the Bottom of our Hearts, we moſt chearfully recognize Your Majeſty our Hereditary and Lawful Sovereign, and ſincerely profeſs ourſelves Members of the Church of England by Law eſtabliſh'd, of which Your Majeſty is not only an Ornament, but alſo the Defender; ſo we beg Leave, at the ſame time, to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, ſupport and aſſiſt Your Majeſty againſt all Attempts which may endanger Your Royal Perſon or Government, our moſt Excellent Church, or the Proteſtant Succeſſion.

And, to that end, when Your Majeſty ſhall, in Your great Wiſdom, call a new Parliament, we will be more careful than ever, to chooſe ſuch Repreſentatives, as are moſt zealouſly affected to Your Majeſty and the preſent Eſtabliſhment, both in Church and State.

And, in the mean time, we ſhall not fail to implore Almighty God, ſo to preſerve and bleſs Your Majeſty, that with Courage and Reſolution, equal to the impending Danger, You may put an early and effectual Stop to theſe growing Evils; and alſo pray, that as Your Majeſty hath been the Renowned Protector of diſtreſſed Nations and People Abroad, He, whoſe Authority You have, and whoſe Miniſter alone You are, may make You the happy Inſtrument of freeing Your own People from all juſt Fears and Apprehenſions of having any illegal Attempts made upon their moſt happy Conſtitution in Church and State here at Home.

Note, This Paper is deſign'd to be continu'd, and ſold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 d. To whom Gentlemen are deſir'd to ſend Exact Tranſcripts of ſuch Addreſſes as ſhall come to their Hands, and they ſhall be carefully inſerted.

A Collection of Addreſſes. N° 8.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the ancient and loyal Borough of Wallingford, in the County of Berks.

Dread Sovereign!

WHen others are expreſſing their Zeal for Your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government, the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and the Church of England as by Law Eſtabliſh'd; we, Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, ſhould be inexcuſable, if we did not ſhew our utmoſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence of thoſe Seditious and Republican, thoſe Schiſmatical and Blaſphemous Opinions, that have been of late ſo audaciouſly broach'd among us; whereby Your Majeſty's Undoubted and Hereditary Right to the Crown has been denied, and the Doctrines of the Church, which teach a due Submiſſion to it, have been impugn'd. Wallingford Borough.

We are ſo ſenſible of our Happineſs, in the ineſtimable Bleſſings we enjoy under Your Majeſty, that Your Majeſty may be aſſur'd of our Loyalty and Good Affection to Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and of our Steadineſs to the Church of England, in oppoſition to thoſe execrable Principles that brought the Bleſſed Martyr to the Block; that can tend to nothing but Anarchy and Confuſion, Atheiſm and Infidelity; and that have once already undermin'd and ſubverted our Conſtitution both in Church and State.

It is to our Aſtoniſhment we find, that in Your Majeſty's Reign, when we have ſo Excellent a Prince on the Throne, after Your Majeſty's repeated Proclamations againſt Vice, Immorality, and Prophaneneſs, and when we have in Your Majeſty ſo unparallel'd an Example of Piety and Goodneſs before us, theſe impious Opinions ſhould dare to appear bare-fac'd, that the moſt Barbarous and Villainous Murder ſhould be juſtified, the moſt Sacred and Unqueſtionable Truths of our Holy Religion diſputed, and Chriſtianity itſelf ridicul'd; and what is moſt wonderful, to have all cover'd under the ſpecious Pretence of LIBERTY and MODERATION!

We ſhall always preſerve a due Tenderneſs to Conſciences truly Scrupulous; and it is not to be imagin'd, but we ſhall ever be ready to Aſſiſt, in ſuch a manner as becomes us, that Liberty the Law gives us, and that Moderation our Religion teaches us; yet we muſt think it our Duty to GOD, and to Your Majeſty His Vicegerent, to uſe our beſt Endeavours, in our ſeveral Stations, to diſcountenance ſuch dangerous Tenets, and to bring to Juſtice ſuch bold Offenders.

And as a farther Teſtimony of the Sincerity of our Intentions in theſe Declarations, which we have preſum'd to lay before Your Majeſty, we do promiſe Your Majeſty, that we will take care to chooſe ſuch Perſons for our Repreſentatives in Parliament, as ſhall moſt heartily concur with us, in the Supporting and Maintaining the Prerogative of the Crown, the Church of England, and Proteſtant Succeſſion, as by Law Eſtabliſh'd. In Teſtimony whereof, we, the ſaid Mayor, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty, have hereunto fix'd the Seal of our Borough, this 1ſt Day of May, 1710.

This Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Mayor, and others of that Borough; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Abingdon, their High-Steward; which Her Majeſty received very graciouſly; and the Mayor, &c. had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

Kenſington, May 9, 1710.

This Day the following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty, by William Carr, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives; introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Earl of Scarborough, Lord-Lieutenant of the ſaid Town and County. Which Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of the Town and County of Newcaſtle upon Tine, in Common-Council aſſembled; with the Clergy, Gentry, and principal Inhabitants of the ſaid Town and County.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

Newcaſtle upon Tine.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and obedient Subjects, crave Leave to congratulate Your Majeſty upon the early and ſucceſsful Progreſs of Your Armies, and thoſe of Your High-Allies, which we believe to be the Continuance of God's Bleſſing attending Your Majeſty's exemplary Piety and Goodneſs, as well as the conſummate Conduct of Your Generals, and undaunted Courage of Your Soldiers. And we ſhall ever chearfully contribute to the effectual Carrying on this neceſſary War, till the common Enemy be diſabled to give any farther Diſturbance to the Peace of Europe, or to Your Majeſty's juſt Right and Title to the Imperial Crown of this Realm.

In Your Majeſty's Safety, our Church as by Law eſtabliſh'd, our Laws, Liberties, and every thing that is dear to us, is ſecure; and we are well aſſur'd, by conſtant Experience, during the whole Courſe of Your Glorious Reign, as well as by Your Royal Word, That no Prince that ever ſat upon the Throne, hath been more really and ſincerely kind to the Church, nor ever had a more true and tender Concern for its Welfare and Proſperity, than Your Majeſty.

An original Power and Right of Reſiſtance in Subjects, are what we never learn'd, either from our Religion, or Laws; and hope never to feel the Effects of them: But we are taught, and fully aſſur'd, that it's our Duties to be firmly Loyal and Obedient to Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, to be zealouſly Affected to the Church of England, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion as they are eſtabliſh'd by Law, againſt the Pretender, and all Popiſh, Antimonarchical, and Republican Oppoſers whatſoever.

And we do earneſtly beſeech Almighty God, to defeat the Councils, and aſſwage the Malice of all ſuch Workers of Iniquity, as would turn Religion into Rebellion, and Faith into Faction; and to bleſs theſe Kingdoms with Your Majeſty's long and glorious Reign over us.

Dated the 24th of April, in the Ninth Year of Your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign.

St. James's, May 14.

The following Addreſs from the County of Suſſex, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir George Parker, Bar. accompanied by ſeveral Gentlemen of the ſaid County; introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Aſhburnham. Which Addreſs was graciouſly receiv'd by Her Majeſty; and Sir George Parker, and the reſt of the Gentlemen, had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, and other Gentlemen of the County of Suſſex, at the Aſſizes held for the ſaid County, at Eaſt-Grinſted, the 3d Day of April, 1710.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

Suſſex County.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, do humbly beg Leave, in the moſt ſolemn Manner, to teſtify unto Your Majeſty our utter Abhorrence of thoſe many ſeditious Libels, wherein Your Sacred Majeſty's Authority is queſtion'd and revil'd; the Church of England as by Law Eſtabliſh'd, vilify'd; and its Doctrines reproach'd; and Atheiſm, Deiſm, and Socinianiſm ſo impudently maintain'd.

And we do heartily concur with the Honourable Houſe of Commons in their juſt Cenſure of ſome ſcandalous Books, which have, of late Years, been publiſh'd and diſpers'd in theſe Kingdoms.

And as we do, from our Hearts, deteſt that Factious and Republican Principle, That Princes may be reſiſted, judg'd, and depos'd by their Subjects; a Notion Ridiculous in its Nature, Contrary to Scripture, Oppoſite to the Practice of the Chriſtians of the firſt Ages, and directly Infringing the Known Laws of the Realm; a Principle by which our Enemies would Subvert, and Deſtroy our Excellent Conſtitution both in Church and State, which has, for ſo many Ages, been maintain'd by our Anceſtors, at the Price of their Blood; and is now happily preſerv'd by the Wiſe Conduct and Adminiſtration of Your preſent Majeſty: So we do aſſure Your Majeſty, that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, defend and maintain the Conſtitution of the Realm, in the Ancient Eſtabliſhment of Monarchy and Epiſcopacy; Your Majeſty in every Branch of Your Royal Prerogative; the Church of England in all its juſt Rights and Privileges; and the Proteſtant Succeſſion, as by Law eſtabliſh'd.

That Your Majeſty may long live and reign over us, happy in a dutiful and loyal People, as they are in a juſt and devout Queen, are the hearty Prayers of Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

St.

St. James's, May 14.

The following Addreſs, from the Borough of Eaſt-Grinſted, was preſented to Her Majeſty, by Henry Campion, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives of the ſaid Borough; introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Lord Aſhburnham; which was receiv'd very graciouſly; and he had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Bayliff and Burgeſſes of the Ancient Borough of Eaſt-Grinſted, in Suſſex.

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, humbly crave Leave to declare our Abhorrence of thoſe many Seditious Libels and Impious Books, which have, of late, ſo daringly inſulted Your Sacred Authority, and ſo openly attack'd, not only the Church of England, as by Law eſtabliſh'd, but the very Foundation of the Chriſtian Religion, by maintaining Socinianiſm, Deiſm, and even Atheiſm itſelf. Eaſt-Grinſted Borough.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign.

With Hearts full of Joy, we ſaw You, by an undoubted Hereditary Right, plac'd upon the Throne of Your Royal Anceſtors; and with grateful Minds, we annually commemorate Your Acceſſion to the Crown, as the greateſt Bleſſing this Nation can boaſt of. With Satisfaction equal to our Wonder, we have yearly ſeen the glorious Succeſſes of Your Arms Abroad; and, as far as in us lay, to procure a Continuance of thoſe Bleſſings, we have religiouſly obſerv'd the Days of Thankſgiving appointed by Your Royal Authority, and have chearfully contributed our Proportion of the Taxes, thinking thoſe the proper Teſtimonies of our Loyalty and Affection to Your Sacred Perſon and Government.

But at this time, when we ſee the Ancient Principles of Loyalty and Obedience (which have been always taught by our Holy Church, and which are the only Security of all Governments of what nature ſoever) ridiculed and treated with the utmoſt Contempt, and in Oppoſition to them, that Jeſuitical Principle of a Depoſing Power in the People, induſtriouſly propagated, and earneſtly contended for; by which means Your Majeſty's Title to Your Crown, and the Allegiance of Your Subjects, is render'd uncertain and precarious. When we ſee theſe and other Arts reviv'd, by which the Enemies of our Church and Monarchy, even in the Memory of ſome now living, effected their wicked Purpoſes in the Deſtruction of both, and the horrid Murder of that Excellent Prince Your Royal Grandfather; we ſhould think it an unbecoming Silence, and ourſelves undeſerving the Bleſſings we enjoy under Your Auſpicious Reign, if we do not join with Your other Loyal Subjects, in declaring, that as we have the ſame unalterable Affection for Your Majeſty, the ſame untainted Principles of Religion and Loyalty, and an utter Abhorrence of all things that tend to the Prejudice of either; ſo we will freely hazard our Lives and Fortunes for the Preſervation of Your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Prerogative, and in Defence of our Conſtitution in Church and State, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion, as by Law eſtabliſh'd.

That Your Reign may as far exceed in Length, as it does in Glory, thoſe of Your Royal Predeceſſors; and that all Your People may deſerve that ineſtimable Bleſſing, by ſtriving to outdo one another, in Demonſtrations of Duty and Affection to Your Majeſty, is the Hearty Prayers of

Your Majeſty's Moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have ſet our Hands, together with the Seal of our ſaid Borough, the 11*th Day of* May, in the Year of our Lord, 1710.

The following Addreſs from the City of Norwich in the County of Norfolk, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Edmond Bacon, Bar. and Sir Jacob Aſtley, Bar. introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord-Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold: Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly, and admitted them to the Honour of kiſſing Her Hand.

Norwich City.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

PErmit us humbly to Approach Your Sacred Preſence, with a Tender of our moſt affectionate Duty, not limited by any diſloyal Reſerve; but with a ſincere Acknowledgment of Your moſt Rightful Dominion over us. We Your faithful Subjects cannot but deſire, in this Juncture, to be diſtinguiſh'd from thoſe bold Undertakers, who pretend to ſupport Your Royal Throne, in a Method very ſurprizing, even by weakning Your juſt Right to it; and make mighty Boaſts of their Loyalty, even whilſt they are loudly contending for their darling Privilege of Reſiſtance; a Privilege unknown to our Laws; condemn'd by the Goſpel; and yet now, under the beſt of Princes, publickly avow'd, and advanc'd into a Duty. We, for our Parts, are not of the Number, nor in the Counſels of thoſe, who make Reſiſtance, or Faction, either their Faith or their Practice. We have been both taught and learnt other Principles of Obedience, by our Venerable Mother the Church, the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd, to whoſe Doctrines we ſtrictly adhere, under the happy Light and Influence of Your Majeſty's moſt Princely Example: Nevertheleſs, with a due Regard to all Perſons of Conſciences truly Scrupulous.

And we aſſure Your Majeſty, that it ſhall be our dutiful Endeavour, within our humble Sphere, to make Your Imperial Crown, with all its Weight of Cares, as Eaſy as it is Glorious; and to that End, we ſhall be particularly Careful, to ſend up ſuch Members to Your future Parliaments, as will be moſt religiouſly Loyal to Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, moſt unalterably Firm to the Intereſt, and Defence of Monarchy, Epiſcopacy, and our moſt Holy Religion, as well againſt the Inſults of Impiety, Prophaneneſs, and Republican Principles, as againſt the Encroachments of Hereſy, and Schiſm, and moſt ſincerely Zealous for the Proteſtant Succeſſion, as by Law eſtabliſh'd.

Given under our Common-Seal of the ſaid City, the 3*d Day of* May, in the Ninth Year of Your Majeſty's Reign over Great-Britain, France, and Ireland. Annoq; Dom. 1710.

The following Addreſs from the High-Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen of the Grand-Jury, and others, aſſembled at the Aſſizes, held at the City of New-Sarum for the County of Wilts, on the 15th day of April, 1710, was, this Day, preſented to Her Majeſty, by ſeveral Members of Parliament, and Gentlemen of the ſaid County; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold, and the moſt Honourable the Marquis of Dorcheſter, Cuſtos Rot' of the ſaid County.

Wilts County.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE humbly beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, That we think ourſelves very happy and are entirely ſatisfy'd and eaſy under Your Majeſty's glorious Adminiſtration both in Church and State.

We cannot but expreſs our utmoſt Deteſtation of all ſuch Perſons who ſhew the worſt Effect of the general Corruptions of Mankind, when they make them a Pretence to blaſt the Reign of a Princeſs, no leſs eminently Zealous for the True Religion, than careful and ſollicitous, by all poſſible means, to ſuppreſs Prophaneneſs and Immorality.

As We heartily beg of Heaven, that Your Majeſty may long Reign over us, ſo we truſt in God, that he will fruſtrate all the Endeavours of ſuch who attempt to Undermine the preſent Eſtabliſhment, or the Settlement of the Crown in the Proteſtant Succeſſion; that he will bleſs us with an Union of Affections and Concord at Home, to the Diſappointment of thoſe who would divide us; and with the Continuance of that glorious Succeſs, wherewith it has pleaſed him already to proſper Your Majeſty's Arms Abroad at the Opening of the preſent Campagne, to the obtaining a happy and well-grounded Peace, ſuch as not theſe Nations only, but all Europe may be ſenſible of to the lateſt Poſterity.

Note, This Paper is deſign'd to be continu'd, and ſold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 d. To whom Gentlemen are deſir'd to ſend Exact Tranſcripts of ſuch Addreſſes as ſhall come to their Hands, and they ſhall be carefully inſerted.

A Collection of Addreſſes. N° 9.

St. James's, May 18.

This Day the following Addreſs, from the Borough of Tamworth, was preſented to Her Majeſty, by Mr. Serjeant Girdler their Recorder, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, attended by Sir Thomas Lawley Bar. Joſeph Girdler Eſq; and ſeveral other Gentlemen of the Corporation; introduced by his Grace the Duke of Shrewſbury, Lord-Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold, in the Abſence of the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Weymouth their High-Sheriff.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High-Steward, Bailiffs, Recorder, Town-Clerk, Capital Burgeſſes, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Tamworth, in the Counties of Warwick and Stafford.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, make bold, in all humble manner, to Approach Your Preſence with our Free-will-Offering; and being warm'd with a noble Zeal and Ardour for the Safety of Your Majeſty's moſt Sacred Perſon and Government, and an Affection for our holy Mother-Church, do Unanimouſly, and from the Bottom of our Hearts, aſſure Your Majeſty, That being deeply ſenſible of the Obligation of our Allegiance to Your Majeſty as God's Vicegerent, we will ſtand by and ſupport Your Majeſty, at the Expence of our Lives and Fortunes, in Defence of Your moſt Sacred Perſon, Rights, and Prerogatives, the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and the Church of England as by Law Eſtabliſh'd, againſt all Oppoſers, both at home and abroad, againſt Popery and Fanaticiſm, whether in Religion or Politicks; and againſt all ſuch Perſons, (if 'tis poſſible ſuch Monſters there ſhould be) who make uſe of the Terms of Loyalty and Moderation, only as a Mask to cover Deſigns which they dare not publickly own, and which, if ever they attempt, we hope the Experiment will prove dangerous only to the Authors. Tamworth Borough.

And, as the beſt Diſcharge of that Duty we owe to our Country, and Your Majeſty, we will, on all Occaſions, chooſe ſuch Repreſentatives in Parliament, as ſhall be moſt likely to Unite in Heart, and Voice, and Joint-Endeavours, to promote every thing that may tend moſt effectually to the Preſervation of God's holy Church and Religion amongſt us, the Safety and Honour of Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and the Diſcouragement of Vice and Prophaneneſs.

That therefore our Church, which is built high upon a Rock, may never become low or abaſed; That Your Majeſty, the Supreme Head and Ornament thereof, may, for their Comfort and Protection, govern long a willing and obedient People; That the Length of Your Reign may be proportion'd to the Glories of it; And as remarkable for the happy Fruits of Peace, as it has been for thoſe of War; And the Piety of Your Example as univerſally imitated, as it is commended; are the daily Prayers of Your moſt obedient Subjects, who have hereunto ſubſcribed their Names, and affix'd the Common Seal of this Your Loyal Corporation.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly; and Mr. Serjeant Girdler, and the reſt of the Gentlemen, had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty on Thurſday the Eleventh of May, by Sir William Wyndham, Bar. one of the Knights of the Shire for the County of Somerſet, attended by ſeveral Gentlemen of the ſame County; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, their Lord-Lieutenant. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly; and Sir William Wyndham, and the other Gentlemen, had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Dread Sovereign!

Somerſet County. WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Grand-Jury, Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Somerſet, do moſt chearfully lay hold of this Opportunity to renew our Aſſurances, that we will always ſtand by and aſſiſt Your Majeſty, to the utmoſt of our Power, in the Defence of Your Sacred Perſon, Title, and Government; and in maintaining the Proteſtant Succeſſion, as well againſt the Pretender, and all his Adherents abroad, as againſt all Hypocritical Pretenders to Loyalty at home, and in preſerving the Apoſtolical Doctrines and Diſcipline of the Church of England, as by Law eſtabliſh'd, in their primitive Purity; in oppoſition to all Traiterous, Popiſh, Seditious, and Republican Principles, which ſtrike at the Root of the Monarchy; and all Herctical and Schiſmatical Tenets, which tend to the utter Ruin and Subverſion of the eſtabliſh'd Church.

And we moſt humbly beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that as we will continue to ſhew our Deteſtation of ſuch horrid Principles, whether Popiſh or Republican, by being inceſſant in our Endeavours to diſcourage and ſuppreſs them; So we will moſt conſtantly chooſe ſuch Perſons to repreſent us in Parliament, as love the Monarchy, and are Eminent for their unbiaſs'd Loyalty and Affection to Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, reſolute in maintaining the juſt Prerogatives of the Crown, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion, affectionately Zealous for the Doctrines and Diſcipline of our unblemiſh'd Church, and of experience'd Abilities and Inclinations to ſecure the juſt Rights, Liberties, and Properties of all Your Majeſty's Subjects.

Thus we ſhall contribute what in us lies, to make Your Majeſty's Reign happy and glorious, that the Memory of ſo Gracious a Queen may continue Bleſſed to all Poſterity; which is the hearty Prayer of,

Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful, &c.

The following Addreſs, from the City of Cheſter, was preſented to Her Majeſty, by Sir Henry Bunbury, Bar. one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Earl of Rocheſter. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Citizens of the City of Cheſter.

Cheſter City. WE, Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, cannot but think it our indiſpenſable Duty, at this time, to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we will be always ready to adventure our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of Your Majeſty's moſt Sacred Perſon, Your Title, both Hereditary and Legal, to the Throne of Your Anceſtors, the Proteſtant Succeſſion as by Law eſtabliſh'd, and the Doctrines of our Apoſtolical Church of England, againſt all Factious and Seditious Oppoſition of their Enemies, and againſt all Schiſmatical and Antimonarchical Principles whatſoever.

And as it hath been our Happineſs hitherto, ſo it ſhall be our great Care, to chooſe ſuch Perſons to repreſent us in enſuing Parliaments, as will, with ſteady Integrity and Zeal, ſerve Your Majeſty, and defend us in our Religion, Laws and Liberties.

That Your Majeſty's Reign may longer continue, and be more extenſive and glorious in the Hearts of Your Subjects, than any of Your Royal Predeceſſors; may You be ſecure and happy in Wiſe and Steady Councils, Faithful and Affectionate Parliaments; may Your Conquering Arms, ſatiated with Victory and Applauſes of the Univerſe, ſpeedily bring You back (the beſt of Trophies) an honourable and laſting Peace; and that late Poſterity may (as we do now) bleſs and admire Your Immortal Name, and Excellent Adminiſtration, is, and ſhall be, our conſtant and zealous Prayer.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have hereunto put the Common Seal of the ſaid City.

This day, the following Addreſs, from the Mayor, the Earl of Exeter Lord Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, and other the Inhabitants of the Ancient Borough of Stamford, in the County of Lincoln, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Honourable Charles Cecil, and the Honourable Charles Bertie, Eſquires, Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Lord Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, and other the Inhabitants of Your Majeſty's Ancient Borough of Stamford, within the County of Lincoln.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE, Your Majeſty's ſincerely Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, joyfully embrace this Opportunity, as we ſhall do on all other Occaſions, to congratulate Your Majeſty on the glorious Succeſs of this early Campagne. And humbly to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we are ready, at all times, to expoſe our Lives and Fortunes, and whatever elſe is dear to us, in Defence of Your Sacred Perſon, Prerogative, and Government, the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd; and will heartily maintain all its Apoſtolical Rights, Doctrines, and Ordinances, againſt all Oppoſers whatever. And we freely declare ourſelves reſolved to quell and reſtrain, as much as in us lies, all Traiterous, Schiſmatical, Antimonarchical Principles and Practices; and will, in our ſeveral Stations, conſtantly endeavour to ſuppreſs all Immorality, Vice, and Prophaneneſs; and, to accompliſh theſe things, ſhall take effectual Care, as we have always, in this Corporation, done, to chooſe ſuch Members for all future Parliaments, as ſhall be inviolably Loyal and Dutiful to Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, zealouſly Affected to our moſt Pure and Holy Religion, and have a tender and compaſſionate Regard to the Lives and Welfare, as well as juſt Care of the Liberties and Eſtates, of our Fellow-Subjects. Stamford Borough.

That Your Majeſty's Reign may be Long and Glorious, ſtill attended with Succeſs; that You may continue a Scourge to Tyrants, a Bleſſing to Your own People, and an Indulgent and Careful Mother to our Holy Church; and that Your Majeſty may very late exchange theſe tranſitory Crowns for a fixt and immortal one; are the conſtant Prayers of, &c.

St. James's, May 14.

The following Addreſs from Haverford-Weſt, in the County of Pembroke, drawn up and ſign'd at the Great Seſſions, held for the ſaid Town and County of Haverford-Weſt, the 22d of April, 1710, was, this day, preſented to Her Majeſty, by John Laugharne, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament of the ſaid Town; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Ormond. Which Addreſs was graciouſly receiv'd; and Mr. Laugharne had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Aldermen, Common-Council, together with the Burgeſſes and Principal Inhabitants of this Ancient Town and County, are ready to venture our Lives and Fortunes, in ſtanding by Your Majeſty upon all Occaſions; but more eſpecially, in Defence of the ſound Doctrines of the Church of England, which ſo juſtly Aſſert the Prerogative of the Sovereign, againſt Men of Antimonarchical Principles; whoſe wicked Induſtry, in inſtilling wrong Notions into the Minds of Your Majeſty's Loyal Subjects, we are aſham'd of, and abhor. And we beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we will uſe our reſpective Endeavours, (as we have hitherto done) to chooſe ſuch Repreſentatives as will concur with Your Majeſty to ſecure our moſt Holy and Apoſtolical Church, from the Malice of ſuch Hereticks and Schiſmaticks; always having a Regard for thoſe who differ from us, out of Conſciences truly ſcrupulous, and whom we know to be well affected to Your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government. Haverford Weſt County and Town.

Long may Your Majeſty live, and Your Reign continue ever glorious, eſpecially in preſerving our Church, which Your Majeſty ſo brightly Adorns; and, for want of Iſſue of Your Sacred Majeſty, may the Proteſtant Succeſſion take Place, as it is ſettled in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, in ſpight of the Endeavours to the contrary, of Papiſt, or Republican. Theſe are the conſtant Prayers of,

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, &c.

The

St. James's, May 14. 1710.

This day the following Addreſs was Preſented to Her Majeſty by Henry St. John, Eſq; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Wooton-Baſſet Borough.

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, and other Electors of Members to ſerve in Parliament for Your Majeſty's Ancient Borough of Wooton-Baſſet, in the County of Wilts, have long obſerved with Sorrow, thoſe inſidious Artifices, by which Faction has impoſed on many amongſt us, and has brought them to miſtake Licentiouſneſs for Liberty, and Indifference for Moderation.

But we ſhould think ourſelves unworthy of the Engliſh Name, if we could continue Silent at this time, amidſt the Crowds of Your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, who daily expreſs their Indignation againſt ſuch Doctrines as openly deny Your Majeſty's Hereditary Title, inſolently invade Your juſt Prerogative, and hardly tolerate the Eſtabliſh'd Church.

We beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we have Hearts and Hands ready to aſſiſt Your Majeſty in oppoſing all Your Enemies, both Foreign and Domeſtick, and in reducing all Exorbitant Power, either at Home or Abroad.

The moſt effectual Way, by which we can evince the Sincerity of theſe Profeſſions, is to chooſe ſuch Perſons to repreſent us, as are capable of paying Allegiance only where it is due, as prefer the Crown to a Faction, the Church to a Conventicle, and our Ancient Happy Conſtitution to any New Model, which the Wickedneſs of ſome Men, and the Weakneſs of others, may conſpire to advance.

This, Madam, we ſolemnly promiſe to perform, whenever Your Majeſty ſhall graciouſly pleaſe to try the Senſe of Your People in a New Parliament; and, in the mean time, we will neglect no Opportunity of ſhewing ourſelves the moſt Dutiful of Subjects to the Beſt of Queens.

May Your Majeſty's Reign over us be long and happy: And, if it ſhall pleaſe Almighty God to deny us the Bleſſing of future Iſſue from Your Majeſty, may the Succeſſion of the Crown in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover be continu'd to the lateſt Poſterity.

The humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, &c. of the County of Pembroke. Preſented by Wiriot Owen, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County of Pembroke, met at the Aſſizes held at Haverford-Weſt for the ſaid County, the 22d Day of April, 1710.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Pembroke County.

'TIS with no ſmall Concern we obſerve the Succeſs our ancient Enemies, the French, obtain among us at Home, while Your Majeſty's Armies (by God's wonderful Bleſſing) under the Direction of Your victorious General and chief Officers ſubdue them abroad. We take notice, they make uſe of the very ſame Methods which they did before the laſt Civil War, which prov'd Fatal to our Church as by Law Eſtabliſh'd, and Your Majeſty's Royal Grandfather.

'Tis with Horror we reflect on the Calamities of thoſe Times; and we find that then were advanc'd enſlaving Principles from the Pulpit; the Supremacy of the Church above that of the Crown; and inciting and promoting riotous and tumultuous Aſſemblies, for influencing Parliamentary Juſtice: That the Jealouſies and Animoſities then reigning, were fomented by the Emiſſaries of France. And ſince the like Methods have, of late, been induſtriouſly promoted, we have great Apprehenſions, they proceed from the Emiſſaries of the ſame our ancient Enemies, as Papiſts, Nonjurors, and others diſaffected to Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

Wherefore, we moſt humbly beſeech Your Majeſty to take great Care of Your Sacred Perſon, on whoſe precious Life the Peace of Your People, and the Welfare of all Europe ſo much depend; and that ſuch miſchievous Practices may be timely prevented, and the Promoters of them diſcountenanc'd and puniſh'd. And we aſſure Your Majeſty, that, to the utmoſt of our Power, we will defend the Church of England, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion, as by Law Eſtabliſh'd, againſt all their Enemies whatſoever.

A Collection of Addreſſes. N° 10.

May 28. 1710.

This day was preſented to Her Majeſty the following Addreſs, from the Mayor, Port-Men, Chief Burgeſſes, and Freemen of the Corporation of Orford, in the County of Suffolk, by Sir Edward Turner, Knight, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Mayor, Port-Men, Chief Burgeſſes, and Freemen of Your Ancient Corporation of Orford, in the County of Suffolk, do humbly beg Leave to approach Your Royal Preſence at this time, when all Your Loyal Subjects ought to ſhew their Abhorrence of thoſe Irreligious and Wicked Antimonarchical Principles, which have been again ſet on foot, in the ſcandalous Pamphlets lately printed, wherein they teach that Treaſonable Doctrine, That the People may call their Sovereign to Account; which may encourage thoſe Enthuſiaſts to treat Your Sacred Majeſty, the beſt of Queens, as they did Your Royal Grandfather, who, as good as he was, could not eſcape their helliſh Fury. And no wonder, ſince 'tis, and always has been, one of their chiefeſt Maxims, to deſtroy that Church, and the Hierarchy of it, which has from the Beginning of Chriſtianity taught, and maintained, That Reſiſting the Higher Powers, is receiving to themſelves Damnation; And this Doctrine being now ſo much exploded, they may, as formerly, with more eaſe, deſtroy the Monarchy, to ſet up their Idol of a Common-Wealth. All which Principles We do, from our Hearts, deteſt. Orford Corporation.

Therefore, we hope, Your moſt Sacred Majeſty will accept of this our humble Addreſs and Aſſurance, That We, of this Corporation, (in which there dwells not one Diſſenter, or Occaſional Conformiſt) will, with our Lives and Fortunes, defend the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd, and Your Royal Perſon, in all Your juſt Rights and Prerogatives. And in order to that, whenever it ſhall be Your Pleaſure to call a New Parliament, We will make choice of ſuch Repreſentatives, who will make this Addreſs appear to be the Dictate of our Hearts.

We ſhall ever pray for Your happy Reign over us, till it ſhall pleaſe the King of Kings to call You to an immortal Crown of Glory; but long, very long, may it be, before that Cloud overſpread us; which, when it muſt come, we will aſſert the Monarchy in Your Proteſtant Succeſſor, to the utmoſt of our Power.

In Teſtimony of which, We have ſet the Seal of our Corporation, this 18*th day of* May, in the Ninth Year of Your moſt gracious Reign over us.

The humble Addreſs of the Cuſtos Rotulorum, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, Clergy, and Gentlemen of the City and Soake of Peterborough, in the County of Northampton, aſſembled at the General Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace, held there, on Thurſday the 20th day of April, 1710. Which Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Honourable Charles Cecil, Eſq; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain, and receiv'd very graciouſly.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Peterborough City.

WE Your Majeſty's truly Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, lay hold on this Opportunity, joyfully to congratulate Your Majeſty on the early Succeſs of this Campagne; and humbly to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we are not only willing, but ready to expoſe our Lives and Fortunes, in oppoſition to all the ſecret, as well as open and profeſs'd Enemies, either of Your moſt Sacred Perſon, Prerogative and Government, the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd; and alſo, againſt all the Enemies of its Apoſtolical Doctrines and Ordinances. And, we declare ourſelves ſincerely reſolute to oppoſe all Traiterous, Romiſh, Republican, Schiſmatical, and Antimonarchical Principles and Practices; and will, in our ſeveral diſtinct Capacities, and Powers, diligently endeavour to ſuppreſs all Immorality and Prophaneneſs: And, in order to theſe things, ſhall take effectual care to elect ſuch Members as ſhall be ſtedfaſtly Loyal and Dutiful to Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and zealouſly affected to our Holy Church, and have a tender and compaſſionate Regard for the Lives, Liberties, and Eſtates of their Fellow-Subjects.

That Your Majeſty's Reign may not only be long, but ſtill attended with repeated Bleſſings; that You may ſtill be a conſtant and indulgent Mother to our Holy Religion; and that Your Majeſty may late (tho' too ſoon for Your now happy People) exchange theſe tranſitory Crowns for an immortal one; are the Prayers of, &c.

May 30. 1710.

This day was preſented to the QUEEN the following Addreſs, from the Clergy of Wilts, by the Reverend Mr. Archdeacon Yeate, and others of the Clergy; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Buckingham: Which the QUEEN receiv'd very graciouſly, and admitted them to kiſs Her Hand.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Wilts Clergy.

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Archdeacon and Clergy of North Wilts, in the Dioceſe of Sarum, whoſe Names are hereunto ſubſcribed, with the utmoſt Humility beg Leave, at this time, to aſſure Your moſt Sacred Majeſty,

That We abhor the Principles and Practices of all ſuch Wicked Men, and Workers of Iniquity, by what Names or Titles ſoever dignified or diſtinguiſhed, who make it their Buſineſs to turn Religion into Rebellion, and Faith into Faction, by reviving and improving this damnable Doctrine, That Supreme Magiſtrates not only may, but ought to be reſiſted by their own Subjects, whenſoever the former, in the Judgment of the latter, ſhall be found guilty of Male-Adminiſtration.

And, as We abhor all ſuch Doctrines, Principles and Practices, which brought our Royal Martyr to the Block, and which, in their own Nature, directly tend to the entire Subverſion of all kinds of Civil Government; ſo We unanimouſly and religiouſly declare, That We verily believe, the Apoſtle St. Paul was inſpired by the Holy Ghoſt, when he wrote thus to the Church of God; Let every Soul be ſubject to the higher Powers, for there is no Power but of God; And the Powers that be, are ordained of God. Whoſoever, therefore, reſiſteth the Power, reſiſteth the Ordinance of God; and they that reſiſt, ſhall receive to themſelves Damnation.

We aſſure ourſelves, Your moſt gracious Majeſty will always be the glorious Defender of that Church, whoſe Doctrines We have always preached, and in whoſe Communion, We not more rejoice to live, than reſolve to die. And, therefore, Gratitude and Duty equally combine, to make us promiſe, That, inſtead of Reſiſting, We will ſacrifice our Lives in Defending, Your Royal Perſon in the rightful Poſſeſſion of the Throne of Your Anceſtors, againſt all Atheiſtical and Antichriſtian, whether Popiſh or Republican, Pretenders whatſoever. And when Your Majeſty ſhall think it Expedient to diſſolve the preſent Parliament, We will continue to give our Votes for ſuch Perſons, and ſuch only, to repreſent us in future Parliaments and Convocations, whoſe Religion and Loyalty ſhall inſeparably lead them to ſerve the united Intereſts of Your Sacred Majeſty, the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd.

The

The following Addreſs from the County of Flint, was Preſented to Her Majeſty, May the 20th, by Sir Thomas Hanmer, Bar. and was very graciouſly receiv'd.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County of Flint, aſſembled at the Quarter-Seſſions held for the ſaid County, this 20th day of April, 1710.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects of the County of Flint, being deſirous, on all Occaſions, to expreſs our ſincere Affections to Your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government; do, at this time, when ſo many Schiſmatical and Blaſphemous Tenets, ſo many Seditious and Antimonarchical Opinions, have been publiſhed, and too induſtriouſly propagated amongſt us, think ourſelves obliged to give Your Majeſty the moſt ſolemn Aſſurances of our ſteady and unſhaken Loyalty to Your Sacred Perſon, our great Regard for Your juſt Prerogative, our firm Adherence to the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and our moſt tender Concern for our happy Conſtitution both in Church and State; in the Defence of which, we ſhall, at all times, be ready to ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes, as well againſt all Attempts of Your open Enemies Abroad, as the treacherous Deſigns of Your ſecret (tho' no leſs dangerous) ones at Home. Flint County.

And as it has been our great Happineſs hitherto, ſo it ſhall be hereafter our utmoſt Care, to chooſe ſuch Repreſentatives in Parliament, as have a true Senſe of their Duty to Your Majeſty, an Ardent Zeal for the Eſtabliſh'd Church, and a tender Regard for the Lives, Liberties, and Eſtates of our Fellow-Subjects.

May God (by whom Kings reign, and Princes decree Juſtice) long preſerve Your Majeſty to Reign over us, a Nurſing-Mother of our moſt Holy and Apoſtolick Church, whoſe Principles are the beſt Security of Monarchy, and whoſe Members are taught to be ſubject, not only for Wrath, but alſo for Conſcience-ſake.

May the ſame God Bleſs Your Arms with continued Succeſs, and Crown Your Endeavours with an Honourable and Laſting Peace; which are the hearty Prayers of Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

Kenſington, May the 21ſt, 1710.

This Day was preſented to Her Majeſty the following Addreſs, from the Corporation of Cambridge, by Samuel Shepheard Jun. Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord-Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly; and Mr. Shepheard had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Cambridge, aſſembled in Common-Council.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, being deeply ſenſible of the invaluable Happineſs we enjoy under the Influence of Your auſpicious Reign, cannot but think ourſelves in Duty bound to expreſs, in the moſt reſpectful manner, our hearty Zeal for the Security and Honour of Your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government, eſpecially at a Time, when that Natural Reverence which is indiſpenſably due to Princes, is in danger of being diminiſh'd, by the Seditious Notions of the Peoples Power, and of Governors being liable to the Cenſure and Coercion of their Subjects, ſo boldly vented and induſtriouſly cultivated by a Libertine and Republican Faction. Cambridge Corporation.

We humbly beg Leave to lay before Your Majeſty, our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of theſe miſchievous, rebellious Principles, which naturally tend to undermine the Fundamentals of Government, and ſhake the Thrones of Princes; and to aſſure Your Majeſty, that our utmoſt Care and Diligence ſhall be employ'd to give effectual Evidence of our ſincere Concern for the Support and Preſervation of the beſt Conſtitution, and the beſt of QUEENS, by continuing to chooſe ſuch Repreſentatives, who, we are aſſur'd, by their known Regard for the Right of Princes, will oppoſe thoſe bold Encroachments upon the Royal Prerogative, which, if not timely prevented, will, under the Pretence of Liberty, introduce a fatal Licentiouſneſs and Diſorder.

And may that Great GOD, by whom Kings Reign, ſo diſpoſe the Minds of all degrees of Your Majeſty's Subjects, that they may entertain very reſpectful Sentiments of that Authority deriv'd from a Power ſuperior to any upon Earth, and ſignalize themſelves in all Inſtances of Chriſtian Obedience, and true Engliſh Loyalty, under Your Majeſty's gracious Adminiſtration.

Kenſington, May 20. 1710.

This day was preſented to Her Majeſty the following Addreſs from the Clergy of the County of Bedford, by the Reverend Mr. St. John, and the Reverend Mr. Humphreys, accompanied by ſeveral others of the Clergy; introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Lord Aſhburnham: Which Her Majeſty was pleas'd to receive very graciouſly, and gave them Her Hand to kiſs.

May it pleaſe Your Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Bedford. Clergy. WHen, with Pleaſure and Satisfaction, we daily hear of the Pious Care Your Loyal Subjects expreſs for Your Government in Church and State: We, Your ever-dutiful Clergy of Your County of Bedford, being moſt nearly related to the one, and equally concern'd for the Welfare of the other, fear we might incur the Guilt of a ſupine Negligence, or Want of Principle, if we ſhould be altogether ſilent on the ſame Occaſion: Therefore, humbly preſume to Approach Your Royal Preſence, with this unfeigned Teſtimony and Aſſurance of our Duty, moſt heartily declaring our Abhorrence of ſuch Principles as neceſſarily tend to deſtroy Your Majeſty's Hereditary Right to the Crown, and void thoſe Doctrines of the Goſpel that would make it ſit Secure and Eaſy upon Your Sacred Head; Principles that are deſigned to vilifie and depreciate the lawful Miniſtry, and lay aſide that Order of Men; Principles that undermine the Religion of the Church of England, and overthrow Chriſtianity, and give a Liberty to Mankind to do that, and that only, which every one ſhall think right in his own Eyes.

Theſe, and all other Antimonarchical Principles and Erroneous Opinions, we will, both by our Doctrine and Examples, (as much as in us lies) diſcountenance and diſcourage; and as we ſhall joyfully, on all Occaſions, be ready to aſſert Your Majeſty's rightful Acceſſion to the Throne, ſo will we firmly adhere to the Proteſtant Succeſſion thereof in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

And may the Omnipotent ſtill protect Your Sacred Perſon, and give Succeſs to Your great Deſigns, both at Home and Abroad, for the Good of Your own People, and the Liberties of Europe, and ſoon increaſe the Glories of Your Auſpicious Reign, with the happy Concluſion of a Laſting and an Honourable Peace.

Kenſington, May 25. 1710.

This day was preſented to Her Majeſty the following Addreſs, from the Inhabitants of the Ancient Town and Borough of Cirenceſter, in the County of Gloceſter, by Allen Bathurſt, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives; introduced by the Honourable Tho. Cook, Eſq; Vice-Chamberlain. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Ancient Town and Borough of Cirenceſter, in the County of Gloceſter.

Crenceſter Borough. WE, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, have, with great Satisfaction, heard, in what Numbers Your Well-diſpoſed People have, at this neceſſary Juncture, declar'd their firm Reſolutions of Supporting and Maintaining Your Royal Prerogative and Hereditary Title, the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd.

As We are not leſs devoted to Your Sacred Majeſty's Perſon, Crown and Dignity, leſs inclin'd to that Succeſſion, nor leſs zealous for our holy, uncorrupted Church; We cannot (after they have been attack'd in ſo open a manner) forbear to aſſure Your Majeſty, that We will venture All that is dear to Us, in Defence of our moſt Excellent Queen, and thoſe Fundamental and Eſſential Parts of our Conſtitution.

That all Your Subjects may, like Us, reſolve to obey Your Majeſty's Commands, and only Your Commands, being neither miſled by the Factious, nor aw'd by the Powerful:

That We may long enjoy the beſt of Princes, and ſee her always ſurrounded by Honeſt and Able Miniſters; and that thoſe, who manage the Cauſe of Sedition and Schiſm, may ever be as Unſucceſsful in their impious Attempts, as they have hitherto been Weak in their Arguments. Theſe, Madam, are the ſincere and earneſt Prayers of, &c.

Note, This Paper is deſign'd to be continu'd, and ſold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 d. To whom Gentlemen are deſir'd to ſend Exact Tranſcripts of ſuch Addreſſes as ſhall come to their Hands, and they ſhall be carefully inſerted.

A Collection of Addreſſes. N° 11.

St. James's, May 29.

The following Addreſs was ſent up to Tho. Coulſon, Eſq; and preſented by the Right Honourable the Earl Poulett, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Devon. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Maſters, Grand-Jury, and other Burgeſſes and Principal Inhabitants of the Loyal and Ancient Borough of Totnes, in the County of Devon, aſſembled at the Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace held for the ſaid Borough, on Wedneſday the 10*th day of* May, Anno Dom. 1710.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do, with all Humility, beg Leave to congratulate Your Majeſty upon the hearty Zeal and juſt Concern, which Your Majeſty's Subjects have ſo lately, and ſo univerſally ſhewn, for Your Majeſty's moſt Sacred Perſon and Government, for our moſt happy Conſtitution, for the truly Orthodox and Apoſtolick Doctrines of our holy Mother, the Eſtabliſh'd Church of England, which hath always ſo remarkably diſtinguiſh'd herſelf for Loyalty and Obedience. Totnes Borough.

It were to be wiſh'd, that in the Reign of the beſt of Queens, there were no Occaſion for Your Subjects to renew their Profeſſions of Fidelity to Your Majeſty. But the reſtleſs Diligence which ſome Men have ſhewn in propagating their Seditious Principles, makes it neceſſary for the faithful Friends of the Crown, to be no leſs forward in the Expreſſions of their Affection and Duty, eſpecially, when Popiſh Doctrines are revived and enforced by Republicans, and even the Legitimacy of the Pretender maintain'd, in Oppoſition to Your Majeſty's Undoubted and Hereditary Right to the Throne of Your Royal Anceſtors.

May that Great GOD, who hath bleſs'd Your Majeſty's Arms with ſo ſucceſsful a Beginning of the Campagne Abroad, be no leſs favourable to Your Perſon and Government at Home; that all Diſcords and Factions may entirely ceaſe throughout Your Dominions, and Your Majeſty ſecurely reign in the Hearts of all Your Subjects.

And We humbly aſſure Your Majeſty, that whenever Your Majeſty ſhall be pleas'd to diſſolve the preſent Parliament, and call a new one, We ſhall endeavour to be ſtill repreſented by Men of known Integrity, faithful to Your Majeſty, and our Excellent Conſtitution both in Church and State, and to the Proteſtant Succeſſion: It being our earneſt Deſire, that when Your Majeſty's Exemplary Goodneſs and Vertue ſhall be rewarded with an Immortal Crown of Glory, (ſince it hath not pleas'd the Divine Providence to ſpare us that invaluable Bleſſing, the Duke of GLOCESTER) our Laws and Government, our Eſtabliſh'd Church and Religion, may be tranſmitted ſafe and entire to the farther Protection of the Illuſtrious Houſe of HANOVER.

London, May 15, 1710.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Maſters, Common-Council, Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of the City or Borough of Wells, in the County of Somerſet, was yeſterday preſented to Her Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, Lord-Lieutenant of the ſaid County; Which Addreſs Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

Wells City. WE Your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Maſters, Common-Council, Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of the City or Borough of Wells, in the County of Somerſet, being highly ſenſible of the many and particular Bleſſings we enjoy under the auſpicious Influence of Your Majeſty's Government, humbly crave Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that nothing ſhall be wanting in us, that may contribute to the Glory and Safety of Your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, the Support of the Monarchy and Succeſſion in the Proteſtant Line, and the Defence of the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd; abhorring, with the greateſt Deteſtation, all manner of Heretical, Schiſmatical, and Antimonarchical Principles, which tend to the Subverſion both of Church and State: And that we will uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to return ſuch faithful and worthy Members to repreſent us in Parliament, as ſhall be Zealous in the Defence of Your Majeſty's Juſt and Hereditary Right to the Throne of Your Royal Anceſtors, and our holy Religion, againſt all Seditious and Schiſmatical Diſturbers of Either.

That the great God by whom Queens Reign, may bleſs Your ſacred Majeſty with Succeſs abroad, with a long and peaceable Reign at home, and, at length, with an immortal Crown, are, and ſhall ever be, the conſtant Prayers of, Madam,

Your moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have hereunto ſet our Common-Seal, this Four and Twentieth Day of April, in the Ninth Year of Your Majeſty's Reign.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Corporation of Marlborough, preſented to Her Majeſty, by the Right Hon. the Lord Bruce, May the 16th, 1710.

Marlborough Corporation. WE Your Majeſty's moſt loyal and obedient Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Marlborough, in the County of Wilts, being deeply ſenſible of the many great and ſignal Bleſſings which God hath been pleaſed to confer upon us ſince Your Majeſty's glorious Acceſſion to the Throne of Your Royal Anceſtors, think ourſelves obliged, at this time, in the humbleſt manner, to aſſure the beſt of Queens, That from our Hearts we deteſt and abhor the baſe Deſigns of all ſuch falſe Teachers and falſe Brethren, who, under the Pretext of Moderation, have lately revived and taught the ſame Doctrines of Reſiſtance and Rebellion, which once made ſuch an Acceldama of this Kingdom, as render'd it liable to the Imputation of the Guilt and Stain of our Royal Martyr's Blood; the Shedding of which, (as our Church teaches us in our very Prayers to confeſs and ſay) nothing but the Blood of the Son of God can expiate.

And as we thus deteſt and abhor all ſuch Antichriſtian, Popiſh, Republican, Damnable Doctrines, which once had ſuch fatal Effects upon this Kingdom; ſo, with the utmoſt Sincerity, without any the leaſt Intermixture of Occaſional Hypocriſy, we voluntarily make this our moſt ſolemn Vow and Promiſe to Your Sacred Majeſty, That we will never reſiſt Your Sovereign Power, which we acknowledge to be from God; but, on the other hand, will not barely expend our Fortunes, but expoſe our Lives to the utmoſt Hazard in the juſt Defence of Your Royal Perſon and Prerogative, againſt all Pretenders whatſoever. And when Your Majeſty ſhall think it ſeaſonable, for the Good of Your People, to call another Parliament, we will make it our Buſineſs to chooſe ſuch Gentlemen to repreſent us in the Houſe of Commons, whoſe Religion ſhall lead them entirely to ſerve the inſeparable Intereſt of Your Sacred Majeſty, the Church of England by Law eſtabliſh'd, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have cauſed our Common-Seal to be hereunto affix'd, this Tenth Day of May, in the Ninth Year of Your Majeſty's moſt glorious and happy Reign.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

May 21. 1710.

This day the following Addreſs was preſented to the Queen by Sir George Cooke, Bar. accompany'd by ſeveral Gentlemen of the Neighbourhood, and introduced by his Grace the Duke of Leeds. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly; and Sir George Cooke, with the other Gentlemen preſent, had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Deputy-Recorder and Burgeſſes; Gentlemen, Freeholders and Inhabitants of Your Majeſty's ancient and loyal Borough and Soak of Doncaſter, in the County of York.

Dread Sovereign!

WE humbly beg Leave, amongſt the reſt of Your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, to expreſs our moſt ſincere Affection to Your ſacred Perſon, and dutiful Obedience to Your Government, by this our grateful Acknowledgment of Your Majeſty's moſt unparallel'd Wiſdom and Goodneſs, which in ſo diffuſive a manner extend to the Common Security and Defence of Religion and Liberty at Home and Abroad. Doncaſter Borough.

As Your Majeſty's Princely Bounty to, and Royal Concern for, the Welfare of our Eſtabliſh'd Church, leave no room to doubt its Safety, under Your Majeſty's Pious Adminiſtation; ſo we humbly preſume to give Your Majeſty our ſolemn Aſſurances, that we do renounce, deteſt and abhor all Popiſh, Irreligious, Seditious, Rebellious, Schiſmatical and Antimonarchical Principles and Practices, Dangerous and Deſtructive to our happy Conſtitution in Church and State.

And we will, upon all Occaſions, demonſtrate theſe our hearty Reſolutions, by a ſteddy Adherence to the Rules of our Primitive and truly Apoſtolick Church, by maintaining Your Majeſty's juſt Rights and Prerogatives, with the utmoſt Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes; and will join with our Loyal Fellow-Subjects to Vote for ſuch Repreſentatives for our Country, as are unqueſtionable true Sons of our Eſtabliſh'd Church, and Zealous Aſſerters of Monarchical Government.

May Your Majeſty long Live, and be (as You are) the Illuſtrious Ornament and Supreme Defender of our Hierarchy and Monarchy, and hand them Safe in the Proteſtant Line to late Poſterity; May You always enjoy the juſt Return of a chearful and undiſputed Obedience from all Your Subjects, as it is, with the greateſt Paſſion and moſt affectionate Zeal, tender'd by,

Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful, and moſt Obedient Subjects.

St. James's, May 29.

This day, the following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty, by Robert Sacheverell, Eſq; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Leeds; after which, he had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Grand-Juries of the Town of Nottingham, aſſembled at their Quarter-Seſſions held there, the 20th day of April, Ann. Dom. 1710.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

WE Your very Loyal Subjects, in all Humility, beg Leave to congratulate Your Majeſty upon the early Succeſs of Your Arms, together with thoſe of Your Allies, in Paſſing the Enemies Lines, which (we truſt in God) is the happy Preſage of a Glorious Campagne, or an Honourable Peace. Nottingham Town.

And we ſolemnly aſſure Your Majeſty, we ſhall be always ready to defend Your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon, the Prerogative of Your Crown, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, againſt all Popiſh or Republican Attempts upon either, at the Expence of our Lives and Fortunes.

That we will firmly adhere to the Church of England, as by Law eſtabliſh'd, its Doctrine and Diſcipline, in Oppoſition to all the Anti-Monarchical, Anti-Epiſcopal, and Atheiſtical Principles, which have of late been induſtriouſly and boldly reviv'd and propagated by Men of wicked Deſigns amongſt us, to the great Amazement, as well as Grief and Scandal, of all Your Majeſty's truly Loyal and Faithful Subjects.

And that we will zealouſly contribute all we can to make Your Majeſty's Crown ſit yet more Glorioufly and Eaſy upon Your Royal Head; as is the indiſpenſable Duty of us, and all Your Majeſty's Subjects.

St.

St. James's, May 30.

This day the following Addreſs, from the Borough of Minehead, was preſented by Sir Jacob Bancks, one of the Repreſentatives of the ſaid Borough, introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Somerſet; which was graciouſly receiv'd; and Sir Jacob Bancks had the Honour of kiſſing Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Minehead, in the County of Somerſet.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

Minehead Borough. SInce Your Majeſty has been pleas'd to allow Your Subjects thus to addreſs You with their Acknowledgment of Your Supremacy, and a Tender of their Duty towards You; we Your moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of Your moſt ancient Borough of Minehead, humbly beg Leave to take this Opportunity to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we do from our Hearts believe Your undoubted Title to the Crown of theſe Realms; and that we will ſupport and defend Your ſacred Perſon and Government, with the Proteſtant Succeſſion, as by Law Limited and Eſtabliſhed, even with an Oblation of our Lives and Fortunes, as well againſt all treacherous and ſecret Enemies, as thoſe that are publick and declared.

And here, out of our abundant Concern for Your Majeſty, we cannot omit to obſerve, how this Republican Principle of Reſiſtance is of late openly taught and maintain'd; a Principle, that even within the Memories of ſome amongſt us, cauſed an unnatural Rebellion againſt the beſt of Princes, Your Royal Grandfather; ſubverted the Monarchy, the wiſeſt of Governments; and ruin'd that Church, whoſe Doctrine is built upon the Prophets and Apoſtles, whoſe Government is truly Apoſtolical, and, in all its Eſſential Parts, of divine Inſtitution; and likewiſe to declare, that we do deteſt and abhor ſuch a factious and pernicious Notion; a Notion ridiculous in its Nature, and inconſiſtent with Reaſon and Scripture, tho' in caſe of Tyranny and Oppreſſion. And as we declare our juſt Abhorrence of that abominable Notion of Reſiſtance, which is the more abominable, becauſe we live under Your Majeſty's Government, the mildeſt of Governments; and as we aſſure Your Majeſty to defend Your ſacred Perſon and Government in the State; ſo do we promiſe Your Majeſty, well knowing that the Proſperity of them both are inſeparable, that it ſhall be our conſtant Care to defend that in the Church, with all its Apoſtolical Doctrines and Diſcipline, the one Monarchical, the other Epiſcopal.

And to that End, we ſhall be always ready to diſcountenance and ſuppreſs all ſuch wicked Tenets and Practices, as will miſlead us into Atheiſm, Hereſy, and Schiſm; and when Your Majeſty ſhall, in Your Princely Wiſdom, judge it proper, we ſhall ſtill continue to chooſe ſuch Patriots to repreſent us in Parliament, as ſhall be eminently Loyal Subjects to Your Majeſty, and conſtant Communicants of our Eſtabliſh'd Church.

That God Almighty might pour down his Bleſſings upon You, that he might help to defeat Your Enemies, and make You ſtill Victorious, and ſo direct You in all Your Paths here, that You may be crown'd with immortal Glory, are the Prayers of,

Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful, Loyal, and Obedient Subjects.

Note, This Paper is deſign'd to be continu'd, and ſold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 d. To whom Gentlemen are deſir'd to ſend Exact Tranſcripts of ſuch Addreſſes as ſhall come to their Hands, and they ſhall be carefully inſerted.

A Collection of Addreſſes. N° 12.

Kenſington, June 6. 1710.

The following Addreſs from the City of Hereford, was this day preſented to Her Majeſty, by Thomas Foley, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly, and Mr. Foley had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and chief Citizens of the City of Hereford, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

AS it has been our Happineſs hitherto to have been by all Your Royal Predeceſſors accounted a loyal City, and to have receiv'd ſeveral diſtinguiſhing Marks of their Royal Favour for the ſame; ſo we hope to tranſmit that honeſt Character down to Poſterity: And therefore cannot, without extreme Horror, reflect on the induſtrious Application that has, of late, been uſed, to vilify and aboliſh that truly Chriſtian Doctrine of Obedience, and Submiſſion to Your Princely Crown and Dignity, which our excellent Church moſt ſtrictly enjoins, and is the ſtrongeſt Support of the Throne: And in its place, to introduce that damnable Poſition of Reſiſtance; the diſmal Conſequence of which, Your Majeſty's Royal Grandfather, of ever-bleſſed and glorious Memory, and theſe Realms, have been too fatally ſenſible of. Hereford City.

And to perpetuate theſe pernicious Principles, and tranſmit them to future Generations; there are ſet up and propagated, in many Parts of this Kingdom, thoſe Nurſeries of Rebellion and Faction, call'd Academies, in Oppoſition to our Two Famous Univerſities; which is an Innovation as much contrary to Law, as the Doctrine they teach is deſtructive to both Church and State.

We crave Leave, therefore, (moſt dread Sovereign) humbly to declare out utmoſt Deteſtation of all ſuch vile and inſolent Proceedings, and to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, not only aſſert and maintain Your Majeſty's juſt and rightful Dominion over us, in its fulleſt and moſt ancient legal Extent; the Succeſſion in the moſt Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover; But alſo, our truly Apoſtolical Church, together with thoſe Laws ſhe is at preſent guarded with; that neither Atheiſts, Papiſts, or thoſe Republican Factious Hypocrites, whoſe reſtleſs Endeavours are inceſſantly employ'd to accompliſh the utter Ruin of our Church and Conſtitution, may ever prevail againſt them.

It is, and ever ſhall be, our moſt fervent and conſtant Prayers, that the great GOD of Heaven, who hath given us the ineſtimable Bleſſing of ſo glorious and pious a Queen, and crown'd Your Majeſty's Reign with ſo very many, very great and amazing Succeſſes abroad, may add to Your Reign this at home, That no Sedition may diſturb the State, nor Schiſm diſtract the Church. And that whenever Your Majeſty ſhall quit this mortal State, You may leave us a flouriſhing Church, and through the ſame, Yourſelf receive an immortal and never-fading Diadem of Glory, with Joys unconceivable in the Heavens.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have hereunto affix'd our Common Seal, this 25th Day of May, 1610.

Kenſington, June 4. 1710.

This day the following Addreſſes were preſented to Her Majeſty by Clayton Milborn Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for the Borough of Monmouth; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury Lord-Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Bayliffs, Grand-Jury, and Burgeſſes, of Your Majeſty's Town and Borough of Monmouth, in the County of Monmouth, at the General Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace, holden for the ſaid Town, the 24th Day of April, 1710.

Monmouth Borough.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, following the Example of our County, and being always proud of any Opportunity that offers, to ſhew the Sincerity of our Hearts, beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that it has always been, and ever ſhall be, our ſincere Wiſhes, and hearty Prayers to Almighty God, to bleſs Your Majeſty with a long and peaceable Enjoyment of every thing that is deſirable in this World, that he would crown, with Succeſs, all Your Undertakings at home and abroad; and that Your Majeſty's gracious Inclinations for the Good of Your People, may more and more conſpicuouſly ſhine amongſt us; that Almighty God would inſpire thoſe Perſons you think proper to entruſt with the Adminiſtration of Publick Affairs, with ſuch Qualifications as ſuch a Princeſs deſerves; that they may zealouſly devote themſelves to Your Service, always be loyal to Your Perſon, conſtant Defenders of the preſent happy Conſtitution of Church and State, hearty Well-wiſhers to the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and as ſincere Adherers to the Prerogative, as to the Liberty and Property of all their Fellow-Subjects. And that the ſucceeding Parliament may agree with Your Majeſty in ſuch and all Your Glorious Undertakings, we promiſe to lay before You ſuch an Example in the Choice of our Members, and always to approve ourſelves,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, loyal, and obedient Subjects and Servants.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Glamorgan County.

WE the High-Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, Gentlemen, and Clergy of the County of Glamorgan, being aſſembled at the Great Seſſions held for the ſaid County, think ourſelves obliged to teſtify to your Majeſty, the great Satisfaction we have to ſee Juſtice adminiſtred in its ordinary Courſe, according to the Rules of our ancient Conſtitution. This is one of the greateſt Bleſſings a People can enjoy; and we hope never to ſee any extraordinary Methods of Proſecution made uſe of, unleſs in extraordinary Caſes.

And we cannot but take this Occaſion, to aſſure your Majeſty, That we utterly deteſt and abhor the Principles of ſuch Men, as dare call in queſtion that undoubted Right by which your Majeſty now ſits on the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors, which, with your Prerogative, and the Succeſſion in the Proteſtant Line, we are ready to maintain with our Lives and Fortunes, againſt all Schiſmatical and Factious Inventers of new Doctrines, equally Dangerous to our Church and State.

Your Majeſty has given ſuch early, ſignal, and repeated Proofs of your Zeal for our moſt holy Religion, that it is impoſſible there ſhould be any that can entertain the leaſt Doubt of your Affection, and ſteady Adherence to the Principles of the Church. It is, therefore, leſs ſtrange, there ſhould be ſome Men, who envy this Her Proſperity, and would pull down thoſe Altars which, to the Scandal of our Nation, and the Name of Chriſtians, they have formerly, in ſo impious a manner, defiled.

We are firmly perſuaded, that the Church of England is the ſtrongeſt Bulwark againſt all our Enemies; and therefore we ſee no Attempts have been made againſt her, but by thoſe Perſons who would likewiſe deſtroy the Form of our Monarchical Government.

Long may your Majeſty live to defeat all ſuch pernicious Deſigns, is the hearty Prayer of

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Kenſing-

Kenſington, June the 1ſt, 1710.

This day the following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Honourable Sir John Holland, Bar. Comptroller of Her Majeſty's Houſhold, and Aſh Windham, Eſq; Knight of the Shire for the County of Norfolk, accompany'd by ſeveral Gentlemen of the ſaid County, and the City of Norwich; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord-Steward of Her Majeſty's Houſhold.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Militia-Officers, Gentlemen, and others of the City of Norwich.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

THIS with inexpreſſible Concern we obſerve Your Reign made uneaſy by miſtaken and ill-deſigning Perſons, ſo induſtriouſly keeping up Diſtinctions and Diviſions amongſt Your Subjects, contrary to Your Majeſty's repeated Recommendations of Union. It might, with great Reaſon, have been expected, that the unparallel'd Wiſdom and Goodneſs, with which You Exerciſe Your Government, would have compoſed Your Subjects into an univerſal Acquieſcence in Your Conduct; and that the Miniſtry You have ſo wiſely made choice of, and who have acquitted themſelves with great Prudence and Fidelity to Your Majeſty and their Country, ſhould not have been ſo invidiouſly ſtruck at. The ill Treatment Your Majeſty, They, and Your great Council, meet with, we heartily lament, and deſire that our Deteſtation of this kind of Behaviour may be recorded to Poſterity. Norwich Militia.

We are at a loſs to account for the Carriage of ſome Perſons, who, in Notion, maintain an unlimited Submiſſion to be due to the worſt of Princes, and yet, in Practice, diſcharge their Obedience ſo imperfectly to the beſt: Whilſt, by unfair Inſinuations, they repreſent Your Majeſty as wanting in Your Care of the Church of England, notwithſtanding the great Bounty You have ſhewn to the Clergy of it, the bright Example You are in it, and Your reiterated Profeſſions of Your true Concern for the ſame. But, as the Reverſe of what we complain of, we declare our great Satisfaction in Your Adminiſtration, and are perſuaded, the impartial World will join with us in doing Juſtice to Your Majeſty in that reſpect. We humbly aſſure Your Majeſty (whom God long preſerve) of our Readineſs, at all Times, to defend Your Perſon and Government, againſt the Pretender, and all his open and ſecret Abettors, and all other Your Enemies, and to maintain the Church of England, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover; and that we ſhall, in every reſpect, demean ourſelves as becomes good Subjects to the beſt of Princes.

We hope, that theſe Approaches of Your People to You, which ſhould be an Inſtance of their Reſpect to Your Majeſty, ſhall not be made uſe of, to put Difficulties upon You; but that all Your Subjects will continually ſtudy to make Your Reign eaſy, who have done all that a wiſe and good Prince could do to make them ſo.

We beg Leave to congratulate Your Majeſty upon the ſucceſsful Opening of this Campagne, and hope it preſages an approaching Peace, that will be Glorious to Your Majeſty in procuring it, and Safe to Your Dominions, and the Nations in Alliance with You; and that Peace may be eſtabliſh'd at home, as well as abroad, and thereby Your Majeſty's full Intentions for the Happineſs of Your People, the better to be obtain'd, we ſhall, with utmoſt Care, upon all Occaſions, cultivate a good Accord with our Fellow-Subjects. In Teſtimony whereof, we moſt heartily and chearfully hereunto ſubſcribe,

Your Majeſty's moſt Obedient, and moſt Faithful

Subjects and Servants.

Note, This Paper is deſign'd to be continu'd, and ſold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 d. To whom Gentlemen are deſir'd to ſend Exact Tranſcripts of ſuch Addreſſes as ſhall come to their Hands, and they ſhall be carefully inſerted.
